UTAH STATE GAME DAY

GAME DAY ATMOSPHERE

GAME DAY ATMOSPHERE

DEE GLEN SMITH SPECTRUM

The Aggies begin their 50th season in the 10,270-seat Dee Glen Smith Spectrum this fall, looking to continue a tradition of large crowds and home court wins.

Utah State has had just one losing season at home in nearly half a century of play in the Spectrum. The Aggies have compiled a 587-141 (.806) record in 49 years, including a perfect 14-0 mark in 1973-74, 15-0 records in 1997-98 and 2000-01, and 17-0 records in 2007-08, 2008-09 and 2010-11. Utah State posted a 14-1 record in the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum last season, marking the Aggies' 25th-straight season with double-digit home victories. Since 2000, Utah State has posted a 139-31 (.818) record against league opponents and has won 280 of its last 326 games (.859) against all competition in the Spectrum.

Large crowds are another characteristic of the arena, as the Aggies have averaged better than 7,000 fans per game in 42 of their 49 seasons in the Spectrum. USU brought in more than 104,000 spectators last year, and over five million fans have attended Aggie basketball games in the Spectrum. A school-record 184,932 fans attended home games during the 2011-12 season, while 104,709 fans attended home games during the 2018-19 season, marking the 25th-straight year that Utah State has drawn more than 100,000 fans.

The impressive facility has helped bring various postseason events to Logan, including first-round National Invitation Tournament games in 1984, 1996, 2002 and 2004. In addition, the Spectrum played host to a 1971 NCAA Tournament game.

The Aggie gymnastics and women's basketball teams call the Spectrum home, as well. The Spectrum was the site of the 1983, 1993 and 1999 NCAA Midwest Region Gymnastics Championships, and hosted the 2000 Big West Gymnastics Championships, the 2002 Western Gymnastics Championships, the 2005 and 2012 WAC Championships and the 2017 MRGC Championships. In addition to sporting events, the Spectrum is utilized for concerts, graduation, the Festival of the American West and other special events.

The Smith Spectrum was dedicated on Dec. 1, 1970, prior to a 95-89 victory against Ohio State. Over the past 10 years, the Spectrum has taken on a new look as a new state-of-the-art scoreboard, sound system and additional lights were installed prior to the 2002 season, to go along with new scorer's tables that were added prior to the 2001 season. In the summer of 2009, renovations to the existing men's and women's basketball locker rooms were made, along with the creation of a new student-athlete lounge and study area. Dressing rooms for four teams are available. The playing floor, which was replaced in the summer of 2004, is permanent and constructed of maple hardwood on a cushion, over concrete. In the summer of 2012, a new updated state-of-the-art video board, scoreboard and scorers tables were installed, along with the resurfacing of the playing floor with the new logo, and in the summer of 2015 the court was again resurfaced and re-painted with a larger U-State logo at center court.

SPECTRUM MAGIC

GREAT FAN SUPPORT

Last year, an average of almost 7,000 fans packed the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum for every contest to watch their Aggies win double-digit home games for the 25th-straight season. Utah State ranked fifth in the Mountain West in attendance with more than 104,000 people in attendance during the season.

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

Playing in the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum is definitely an advantage for the Aggies. Since 2000, Utah State teams have won more than 85 percent of its home games (280-46). The Aggies have a 587-141 (.806) all-time record in the facility.

Utah State has gone unbeaten six times in the Spectrum's 49-year history.

The Aggies have won 280 of their last 326 games (.859) in the Spectrum, dating back to the 2000 season, including 139 of their last 170 (.818) home games against league competition over the same span.

Utah State had a school-record streak of 37 straight victories in the Spectrum, spanning the 2007-08 to 2011-12 seasons. Overall, USU has had a winning record at home for 36 consecutive seasons.

During the 2019-20 season, Utah State will play 16 games in the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum. Home game highlights include match-ups with in-state foe Weber State and long-time opponents Montana State and Denver. Home games also include contests against North Carolina A&T, UTSA, Saint Katherine and Eastern Oregon. The home slate will also include Mountain West contests against Fresno State, San Diego State, Nevada, Air Force, UNLV, Boise State, Wyoming and San José State.

Utah State's fans were recently recognized by bleacherreport.com as the only honorable mention selection to its top five best college fanbases behind Kansas, Indiana, Kentucky, Duke and Syracuse.

A COMMITMENT TO ACADEMICS

The staff with student-athlete services provide all the necessary tools and resources for student-athletes to be academically successful. This includes academic tutoring & mentoring, learning skills assessments and strategies, course management assistance, degree program advisement and career development.

The office also administers USU's NCAA Student-Athlete Affairs program and coordinates Aggie Ambassadors, Utah State's student-athlete outreach program.

Since 2000, Utah State has had better than an 80 percent graduation rate. The senior class each of the last five years has gone on to graduate, including 2018-19 graduates Dwayne Brown Jr., and Quinn Taylor. The lone Utah State senior from 2012-13 academic year graduated, as did all three of the seniors from the 2011-12 season, as well as all six seniors from the 2010-11 season, along with its lone senior during the 2009 and 2010 seasons.

2001 MEN'S BASKETBALL GRADUATING CLASS: Shawn Daniels, Bernard Rock, Dion Bailey and Curtis Bobb.

2003 MEN'S BASKETBALL GRADUATING CLASS: Chad Evans, Mike Puzey, Ronnie Ross, Desmond Pinegar and Toraino Johnson.

2007 MEN'S BASKETBALL GRADUATING CLASS: Chris Session, Durrall Peterson and Chaz Spicer.

The Dr. Randall and Julianne Stockham Student-Athlete Academic Hall of Honor opened in September of 2010. Inside the Stockham Student-Athlete Academic Hall of Honor are four permanent displays to feature CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, Joe E. and Elma Whitesides Scholar-Athlete Award winners, current academic all-Mountain West honorees and current Aggie Athletics Endowed Scholarships donors and recipients.

In its eight years in the league, Utah State student-athletes led the Western Athletic Conference with an 84 percent graduation rate, while maintaining over a 3.19 cumulative grade-point average. During the 2013-14 academic year, Utah State had 242 student-athletes recognized for academic excellence in the Mountain West to take second in the league. The number increased in 2014-15, when Utah State was recognized with 250 student-athletes named to academic awards. In 2015-16, the number increased to 273 student-athletes, second in the MW. Overall, USU has led its conference 16 times in the last 19 years, as it led the Big West Conference in 2000 and 2002-05. In 2001, the Aggies ranked second in the Big West in academic selections. Additionally, USU honored 195 student-athletes with a cumulative GPA of 3.2 or better at its own Joe E. Whitesides luncheon.

BASKETBALL FACILITIES AND SUPPORT

During the summer of 2009, Utah State's locker room was completely remodeled as new state-of-the-art lockers were installed. A student-ath-lete lounge was also created within the locker room that has three flat-screen high-definition televisions equipped with Wii and XBox capabilities. A full-size refrigerator that is stocked daily with weight-gaining supplements is also located within the lounge, along with leather couches and a wireless work-station with computers. A cold pool was also installed inside the locker room to help enhance players' muscle recovery.

Completed in June, 2013, Utah State's $6.5 million, 26,329 square-foot ICON Sports Performance Center features areas for weight training, cardiovascular workouts and speed and agility training, as well as offices for staff. Built on existing university property at the northwest corner of Maverik Stadium, the state-of-the-art multi-level facility alleviated overcrowding in the previous 5,800 square-foot strength and conditioning center and accommodates almost 400 student-athletes from 16 sports programs.

The ICON Sports Performance Center is the largest such facility in the Mountain West and rivals any strength and conditioning complex in the country. Of the schools Utah State competes against in the MW, Fresno State currently has the second-largest strength and conditioning center(s) at 12,500 square feet, followed by Air Force (12,000 sq. ft.), Boise State (12,000 sq. ft.), Wyoming (11,100 sq. ft.), Hawai'i (10,000 sq. ft.), New Mexico (10,000 sq. ft.), Colorado State (10,000 sq. ft.), San José State (10,000 sq. ft.), UNLV (8,200 sq. ft.) and Nevada (8,000 sq. ft.).

The Wayne Estes Center is a $9.5 million, 32,000 square-foot basketball practice facility and volleyball competition venue that opened in April, 2014. The facility contains a regulation size competition court with chair back seating for 1,400 fans, along with a training room and in-season strength and conditioning area. Office space for both men's and women's basketball and volleyball is included in the new facility, as well as a locker room and film room for volleyball. Ticketing and concession services are available on game days. Located inside the foyer of the Wayne Estes Center is a visual tribute of the building's namesake.

The facility was made possible following a lead gift of $5.25 million from Jim and Carol Laub (the largest single gift in the history of Aggie Athletics) and a $1.3 million gift from Blake Kirby. All funding for this new facility came from private donations.

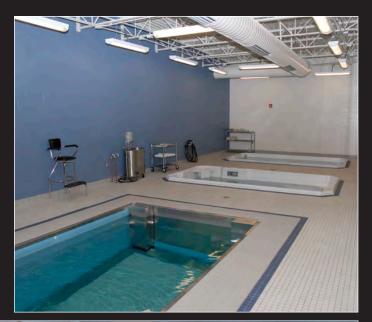

LAUB ATHLETICS-ACADEMIC COMPLEX

The Dale Mildenberger Sports Medicine Complex and the Dr. John Worley Sports Medicine Research Center is one of the finest in the nation with over 11,000 square feet to provide maximum service to Utah State's 16 intercollegiate sports and 375-plus student-athletes. Among the many amenities are 24 treatment tables, a 2,000 square foot physical therapy and rehabilitation center, and three hydroworx therapy pools for non-weight or partial weight-bearing rehabilitation to enhance recovery. The Sports Medicine Complex also houses office space for four full-time staff members and 12 graduate assistants, a team physician examination room and physical therapy office.

With the addition of the new facilities and the continued cooperation between Utah State Athletics, Intermountain HealthCare and HPER/Exercise Science, Utah State University is becoming one of the foremost sports medicine research institutions in the intermountain west.

LAUB ATHLETICS-ACADEMIC COMPLEX

The third floor of the Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex houses the academic center for student-athletes. This center consists of a 24-unit computer center, a spacious study center, and several individual one-on-one tutor rooms. Additionally, there are three smaller classrooms that can be used for group study sessions, group tutoring, tutor meetings, and general meeting and study needs. Two of the classrooms can be opened to create one larger classroom. All classrooms have television monitors installed and have data connectivity for PowerPoint, Internet and other useful presentations. The study center is completely wireless for student-athletes to connect to the Internet anywhere in the facility, but also has sub-floor electrical and data connections throughout. The student-athlete services staff are also housed within the academic center.

Student-Athlete Services is designed to assist student-athletes with academic, vocational and social development. Dr. Brian Evans and his staff provide services including study sessions, tutoring, registration, academic advising and career counseling.

FUELING STATION

The Aggie Fueling Station, located on the bottom floor of the ICON Sports Performance Center, was created prior to the start of the 2016-17 school year by representatives from the nutritional program and athletics, who had a goal of working together to provide student-athletes with the food they need to complement the physical demands of training and nutrition. The fueling station is stocked with appetizing food focused on combining convenience and nutrition. Student-athletes can choose from a variety of fresh fruits and vegetables, cheese, milk, chicken, yogurt, beef jerky, peanut butter, trail mixes and much more. Workers at the fueling station prepare fruits and vegetables, measuring out serving sizes, restock the serving area and plan the daily special. In addition to food preparation, volunteers are on site to answer nutrition questions from student-athletes and give presentations about health and wellness to all 16 of Utah State's sports programs.

STUDENT-ATHLETE TRAINING TABLE

Utah State student-athletes are able to attend a training table three times a week during the fall and spring semesters. The menu for the meal is planned by Utah State nutritionists and the strength & conditioning staff to supplement each student-athlete's nutrition needs and to keep each in top physical condition.

Neemias Queta, Sam Merrill, Abel Porter and Quinn Taylor visit with the national media at the 2019 NCAA Tournament.

Located just 90 miles from Salt Lake City, Utah State falls into the 33rd largest media market in the country. Attention is received from the state's largest newspapers, television stations and radio stations.

This season, USU men's basketball will have 16 games on national television. The Aggies will be seen on the ESPN family of networks six times, AT&T Sports Net five times, CBS Sports Network three times, and have a singular appearance on Stadium.

All USU basketball games, home and away, are broadcast on the USU radio network, as well as on the Internet through USU's web page at www.UtahStateAggies.com. Scott Garrard hosts a weekly coach's show with USU head coach Craig Smith.

Utah State's web page allows media and fans all around the country and around the world to follow Aggie athletics. Updated on a daily basis, the website provides radio broadcasts of games, information on the team and features on the players.

CAMPUS LIFE

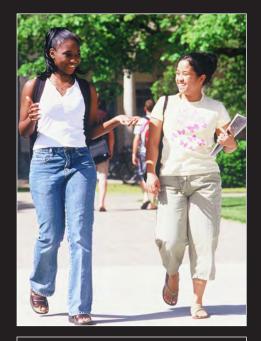

Utah State has more than 100 buildings on 400 acres, with an additional 7,000 acres throughout the state used for agriculture and research.

Located just minutes from the mouth of Logan Canyon, Utah State students have a myriad of recreation options.

With a student body of over 25,000, Utah State has advantages of both the large and small schools with such features as two libraries, excellent laboratories and top-rated cultural attractions.

The student body represents every county in Utah, all 50 states and 80 foreign countries. A majority of students live on or near campus. The University includes seven resident colleges with 45 departments

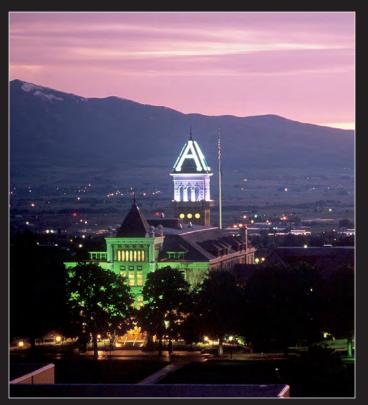

HAIL THE UTAH AGGIES

Hail the Utah Aggies,
we'll play the game with all our might.
See the colors flying,
the Aggie blue and fighting white.
How they stir us onward;
we'll win the victory alright.
Hail the Utah Aggies;
we're out to win, so fight, fight, fight!

Utah State, Hey! Aggies all the way! Go Aggies! Go Aggies! Hey! Hey! Hey!

LOGAN AND CACHE VALLEY

With a population of 101,811, nearly 50,000 of whom live in Logan, Cache County is a growing area 90 miles north of Salt Lake City. The Cache Valley itself is 60 miles long and 15 miles wide and experiences each of the four seasons.

The Cache Valley, a fertile green valley with lakes and streams, is surrounded by the Wellsville Mountains on the west and the Bear River Range on the east. Just east of Logan is the Wasatch-Cache National Forest, accessed by Logan Canyon Scenic Byway (Hwy. 89). Logan Canyon is filled with geological wonders, including vertical rock formations, caves and wind tunnels. Thirty minutes from Logan, Beaver Mountain Ski Resort is a popular winter getaway. Fifteen minutes beyond Beaver Mountain, the summit of Logan Canyon is a breathtaking view of turquoise-colored Bear Lake.

Utah State men's basketball enters the 2019-20 season with a great deal of expectation after winning both the Mountain West regular season and tournament championship a season ago. The Aggies were named a unanimous favorite in the annual preseason MW poll, becoming the first team to garner every first-place vote in conference history.

"I would rather have high expectations than no expectations or next-to-no expectations," Utah State head coach Craig Smith said. "Utah and Cache Valley both have high expectations for their basketball programs because of the rich tradition in the state. If you don't have high expectations for yourself or for you program, then you are probably in the wrong place."

USU returns six letterwinners from the 2018-19 season, including four starters, that contributed more than 70 percent of the points, assists, blocks and minutes during last year's run that saw the Aggies finish with a 28-7 record. The 28 victories marked the third-most in school history and the most for Utah State since the 2010-11 season.

"Our returners have been really, really good," Smith said. "All six of our returners have clearly gotten better as players. They are all about our program and being the best that we can be."

Headlining the group is senior guard Sam Merrill, the 2018-19 MW Player of the Year and 2019-20 MW Preseason Player of the Year. Merrill led the Aggies to both the regular season and conference tournament title a season ago after pacing USU with a team-best 20.9 points per game. Merrill finished the year with 731 points, the fifth-most in a single season in Utah State history, while his average of 20.9 points per game ranked second in the MW. Merrill was also the top distributor for the Aggies, totaling a team-best 147 assists and averaging 4.2 per contest to rank fifth in the MW.

Merrill was also named third-team All-American by Stadium, AP honorable mention All-American, first-team all-Mountain West, first-team all-District 17 by the National Association of Basketball Coaches and all-District VIII by the U.S. Basketball Writers Association. Merrill will enter the 2019-20 season with 1,568 career points and could become just the fourth Aggie in the history of the program to eclipse 2,000 career points.

"Sam is the most unselfish starter that I've ever been around," Smith said of Merrill. "He just wants to win. He is an incredibly high achiever, but he loves to celebrate his team's success. His teammates have great confidence playing with him and he makes his teammates better players. That is a sign of a great player."

Sophomore center Neemias Queta, an invitee to the 2019 NBA Draft Combine, is also receiving accolades going into the season after being named the 2018-19 MW Freshman and Defensive Player of the Year. Queta earned preseason all-MW honors and is coming off of a season where he shattered the single-season blocks record at USU and helped the Aggies to their first appearance in the NCAA Tournament since 2011. Queta finished the year with 84 blocks, far surpassing the previous school record of 59, set by Shawn Daniels during the 2000-01 season. Queta led the Mountain West and finished 14th in the nation with 2.4 blocks per contest. He started the year with at least one block in 29 straight games, the longest such streak in Utah State history, and recorded at least one rejection in all but one game during the year. Queta recorded a season-high six blocks in two games last season, matching the third-most blocks in a game in Utah State history and setting a Mountain West freshman record.

In addition to his defense, Queta finished second on the team with 11.8 points per game and led the team with 8.9 rebounds per game. Queta scored in double figures in 24 games and logged a team-best 10 double-doubles during the year. Queta's team-leading 312 rebounds during the year marked the first time an Aggie has surpassed 300 rebounds in a season since the 1976-77 campaign and set a USU freshman record.

"Neemi really impacts the game in so many ways," Smith said of Queta. "His upside is incredible and yet he is already a very good player. He is an elite rim protector and an excellent rebounder. He's a good finisher and he's improved his skill level to where he can shoot it some. He's an excellent passer and is a quick learner."

Sophomore guard Brock Miller started alongside Queta in all 35 games last season, tying the Utah State freshman record. Miller was a long-range weapon for the Aggies in 2018-19, knocking down 70 3-point buckets, finishing second on the team from deep.

"Brock played monster minutes for us as a freshman last year," Smith said of Miller. "Down the stretch, he was really good for us and really consistent. He is like a microwave – when he makes one shot, two and three are going to come really quick. He's got great length and size and can really get it going."

Junior guard Abel Porter started at the point for the final 17 games a season ago and directed the Aggies to victories in 15 contests down the stretch. With Porter at the helm, Utah State saw jumps in several statistics, including assists per game (17.7 from 16.5) and turnovers per game (11.9 from 13.6), while the team also shot better from the floor (.374 from .335) and scored more points per game (78.7 from 78.6).

"Abel's process has been incredible as a player," Smith said of Porter. "He's smart, he's dependable and you know what you are going to get out of him, whether it is in a game or practice. He's just steady Eddie. He does a great job of running the team."

Senior guard Diogo Brito was in the discussion for sixth man of the year in 2018-19 and proved to be one of the most versatile players on the Utah State roster. Brito is one of just three returning players in the MW that appeared in more than 30 games last season and averaged more than 8.0 points, 4.0 rebounds, 2.0 assists and 1.0 steals per game.

"Diogo is a stat stuffer and is incredibly bright," Smith said of Brito. "We can put him anywhere on the floor and he is a tremendous worker. He's got super quick hands, is instinctive and tips and deflects balls like crazy and gets a lot steals. You could see his game really taking off over the last 10-15 games of last season."

Sophomore forward Justin Bean rounds out the starters returning for Utah State and quickly became a fan favorite last season with his hustle play and thunderous dunks. Bean had his best game of the year in the MW Tournament quarterfinals, posting a double-double of 14 points and 15 rebounds.

"Bean came on gangbusters down the stretch last year," Smith said. "It was great for a freshman like that to be in so many meaningful games, where he had valuable minutes and made monster contributions. I don't think I've seen anyone who came from where he was to where he is in such a short amount of time in a positive way. He's an elite rebounder on both ends of the floor and is a double-double guy every night out."

In addition to the six letterwinners, Utah State returns three redshirts in senior forward Roche Grootfaam, junior center Klay Stall and freshman center Trevin Dorius. Stall has been with the Aggies for three years, appearing in 10 games during the 2017-18 season while battling injuries each of the past two years. Grootfaam was rehabbing a knee injury during the 2018-19 season after transferring from the College of Southern Idaho. Dorius was with the Aggies during the 2015-16 season and recently returned from a two-year LDS Church Mission in Arizona.

"Klay's career, up to this point, has been riddled with injuries," Smith said of Stall. "He's got good size and good touch around the basket. He's improved his game offensively and has improved defensively."

"Roche is a consumate teammate," Smith said of Grootfaam. "He's back and healthy and it's been a long recovery for him. He's a bowling ball and a very good athlete. He's a GATA guy that is going to give everything he's got every night out."

"Trevin's really bought in," Smith said of Dorius. "He's another legit seven footer, who moves well and is a quick learner. He's all about the team and is really physical and rugged. He loves everything about Utah State and gets better every week and we've got high expectations for Trevin."

The roster is rounded out by six newcomers, including junior guard Marco Anthony, a transfer from the University of Virginia, junior guard Carson Bischoff, a transfer from Treasure Valley Community College, junior center Kuba Karwowski, a transfer from North Platte Community College, and junior forward Alphonso Anderson, a transfer from North Idaho College. Guard Sean Bairstow and forward Liam McChesney are the lone true freshmen on the squad.

Anthony played in 22 games last season as the Cavaliers captured the NCAA National Championship. Anthony averaged 1.2 points and 0.5 rebounds per game in a limited 5.4 minutes per contest. As a freshman, Anthony helped the Cavaliers to a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament, appearing in 13 games during the year and averaging 2.0 points and 1.0 rebounds per game in 7.9 minutes per game. One of his best games during his career came against Louisville in his inaugural season, scoring 10 points on 4-of-6 shooting from the floor.

"Marco is a very talented guy," Smith said of Anthony. "He's got muscles on his shins. He is so versatile and skilled, and has been in a big-time program for two years that understands winning. He brings a lot of versatility to us, can play one through four and can guard all those positions."

Bischoff joins the Aggies after two years at Treasure Valley Community College, where he was second on the team with 19.7 points per game, scoring in double figures in all but two contests during the 2018-19 year. Bischoff's scoring output included 13 games with 20-or-more points and three games with 30-or-more, including a season-high 34 points against Mt. Hood Community College. Bischoff shot 43.0 percent (135-of-314) from the floor, 39.1 percent (75-of-192) from behind the 3-point line and 81.0 percent (68-of-84) at the free throw line. Bischoff also led TVCC on the glass, averaging 6.6 rebounds per game and pulling down five-ormore rebounds in 13 games. Bischoff recorded a season-high 12 rebounds, making up one of five double-double performances during the year. Additionally, Bischoff averaged 2.6 assists and 1.6 steals per game.

"Carson has been a great addition to our program," Smith said of Bischoff. "He's really taken a giant leap and the game has started slowing down for him. He understands what he's good at and what he struggles with, and he does a good job playing off of his strengths. That guys strokes it. When he shoots, you are surprised when it doesn't go in."

Karwowski led the Knights of NPCC to a 24-5 record a Region IX South Division title, averaging a near-double-double of 9.7 points and 8.9 rebounds per game in 2018-19. Karwowski scored in double figures in 15 games, including a career-high 21 points against Eastern Wyoming. Karwowski used a career-high 22-rebound effort against Southeast to tally one of seven double-doubles during the year, pulling down double-digit rebounds in 12 games during the year and five or more rebounds in 21 of his 27 games. Karwowski paced the Knights in blocks for a second consecutive year, finishing with 66 and swatting a season-high six against McCook, and logging multiple blocks in 19 games.

Karwowski was third in the NJCAA last year in field goal percentage, shooting 70.6 percent (108-of-153) from the floor, and although not shooting many 3-point shots, Karwowski connected on 42.9 percent (3-of-7) from behind the arc. The native of Warsaw, Poland, also earned first-team all-Region IX honors following his sophomore campaign.

"Kuba is incredibly mobile, you don't see a whole lot of 7-2 guys with feet like his," Smith said of Karwowski. "He runs so well north and south, and slides so well east and west. He's very smart and understands how to play. He should have a major presence for us defensively with his rim protection and anchoring our defense."

Anderson played one year at North Idaho College, leading the Cardinals to a 31-2 mark and Northwest Athletic Conference Championship. Anderson finished third on the team with 15.6 points per game, shooting 48.7 percent (184-of-378) from the floor, 35.7 percent (30-of-84) from behind the 3-point line and 71.9 percent (87-of-121) at the free throw line. Anderson was named first-team all-NWAC and helped the Cardinals record the best scoring average of any team in the NWAC, as the team averaged 114 points per game.

"Fonz brings a lot versatility to us and is a high-energy guy," Smith said of Anderson. "He is a very good mentor and leader and has really bought in. He's really made a positive impact in every aspect in our program, from the strength coaches, to the academic advisors, to nutrition – everyone he's come in contact with speaks very highly of him. On the floor, he's a guy who can score in many different ways."

Bairstow, a familiar name in the Mountain West, has a pedigree that includes an older brother, Cam, an all-conference performer at New Mexico from 2011-14 and a sister, Stephanie, who suited up for the women's basketball team at Utah State from 2013-14. Bairstow showcased his own talents at the annual Aggie Madness, winning the slam dunk contest with several high-flying spectacles.

"Sean is so versatile and as a freshman we are learning his game and he is learning how we play," Smith said of Bairstow. "He's an excellent passer and really good decision maker. He is a blender – he can really play with anybody and is a tremendous fit in our style of play."

McChesney rounds out the roster for the Aggies and is one of the youngest members of the squad after just turning 18 as the semester began. McChesney will provide matchup problems with his 6-foot-10 frame and his ability to stretch the floor with his knock-down shooting from deep. McChesney led Charles Hays Secondary School to the 2019 Provincial Championship, averaging 35 points and eight assists per game as a senior en route to being named the MVP of the provincial championships.

"Liam is amazingly talented," Smith said of McChesney. "He's a legitimate 6-10, 6-11 and is so smooth and light on his feet and moves like he's a 6-1 guy. He's super skilled and you just don't find a lot of guys with that height who have such a strong feel for the game. He can score it in so many different ways and can score it quickly."

"We just want to be the best that we can be," said Smith, summarizing his vision for the 2019-20 season. "We want to be the best that we can be as a team, be the best that we can be individually and just strive to get better every day."

Following the 2016-17 season, Smith was named the Summit League and NABC District 12 Coach of the Year as he led South Dakota to a 22-12 record, including a 12-4 mark in league play, to win its second-ever Division I conference championship. The Coyotes concluded the season by playing in the National Invitation Tournament.

During his four years as the head coach at South Dakota, Smith coached nine players who earned a total of 11 Summit League honors, including Matt Mooney, who was a two-time first-team all-league honoree and a two-time NABC All-District 12 team member.

Prior to being the head coach at South Dakota, Smith spent two seasons as an assistant at Nebraska (2013-14) and five seasons as an assistant at Colorado State (2008-12), helping the Cornhuskers to the 2014 NCAA Tournament and the Rams to the 2012 NCAA Tournament. While at CSU, Smith also helped the Rams advance to the 2010 CBI Tournament and the 2011 NIT.

Smith's other head coaching stint was at Mayville State University in North Dakota, where he compiled a 72-29 record in three seasons and three-straight NAIA II National Tournament appearances from 2005-07. The Comets were 1-25 the season before Smith's arrival and competed in the NAIA National Championship game in their third season under Smith.

After winning 17 games in his first season at Mayville State, the Comets set a school record for victories with 28 during the 2005-06 campaign, while winning the Dakota Athletic Conference (DAC) regular season and tournament championships. Mayville State advanced to the national quarterfinals before falling to the eventual national champions.

In 2007, Smith was named the NAIA II National Coach of the Year when the Comets defended their regular season and tournament titles and advanced to the National Championship game. It marked the first time any men's basketball team from North Dakota had ever played for a national title. Smith also earned DAC Coach of the Year honors in both 2006 and 2007.

Smith began his coaching career as an assistant at Mayville State during the 1996-97 season as he helped the Comets advance to the NAIA II Tournament. He then spent the 1997-98 season as a graduate assistant at Northern State in South Dakota, helping the Wolves to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Division II Tournament. He then spent three seasons as an assistant at Minot State in North Dakota, followed by three more seasons as an assistant at North Dakota State, where he began his affiliation with current Nebraska head coach Tim Miles. Following his three years as head coach at Mayville State, Smith worked under Miles at both Colorado State and Nebraska before becoming the head coach at South Dakota.

Smith is a Stephen, Minn., native and a 1996 graduate of the University of North Dakota, where he earned his bachelor's degree in secondary education. He then earned his master's degree in teaching and learning from Northern State, where he served as a graduate assistant for the 1997-98 season. The Wolves reached their first-ever Elite Eight that season.

Smith and his wife, Darcy, have three sons: Landon, Brady and Carson, along with a daughter, Lauren.

ERIC PETERSON

Assistant Coach • Second Season • Wisconsin - La Crosse (2006)

Eric Peterson is in his second year as an assistant coach with Utah State men's basketball, joining the staff following four years under head coach Craig Smith at South Dakota.

While at South Dakota, the Coyotes enjoyed unprecedented success at the Division I level with back-to-back 20-win seasons, a regular season Summit League Championship and the school's first-ever appearance in the Summit League Tournament Championship game. Overall, USD was 79-55 (.590) over the past four seasons, including a 38-26 (.594) mark in conference play. In the past two seasons alone, South Dakota was 48-21 (.696) and 23-7 (.767) in league play, while advancing to a pair of postseason appearances in the NIT and CBI.

Peterson directly worked with the post players at South Dakota, mentoring his charges to a first-team all-Summit League honor for Tyler Flack, and a pair of second-team all-Summit League accolades in Trey Burch-Manning and Tyler Hagedorn. Last season, Burch-Manning finished sixth in the Summit League in rebounds per game, averaging 6.8 per contest. Hagedorn finished second on the team with 13.0 points and 5.9 rebounds per contest, while leading the team with 28 blocks during the year. Burch-Manning was also named to the Summit League all-Newcomer Team in 2016-17 after finishing fourth in the Summit League with 7.8 rebounds per contest during league play in his first year in Vermillion. That same season, Flack finished second on the team with 15.2 points per game and led the Coyotes with 6.8 rebounds per game and totaled 41 blocks.

Over the past two seasons in the Summit League, South Dakota finished third (37.69 rpg) and second (37.38 rpg), respectively, in total rebounds per game, and ranked third both seasons in offensive rebounds per game with 10.26 offensive rebounds per game in 2017-18 and 10.44 offensive rebounds per game in 2016-17.

In addition to working with the posts, Peterson was also in charge of scheduling for the Coyotes and didn't shy away from tough competition. In 2017-18, South Dakota played at Duke, and took both UCLA and TCU to the wire in road contests in Los Angeles, Calif., and Forth Worth, Texas. The 2016-17 schedule included road games at Nebraska and Gonzaga, while the 2015-16 schedule included a victory at Minnesota, 85-81, in double overtime, snapping the Golden Gophers' 47-game non-conference home winning streak.

Prior to USD, Peterson was the head men's basketball coach and Director of Athletics at Williston State College, a junior college in Williston, N.D. During his tenure, the Tetons compiled an overall mark of 52-15 and captured the 2014 Mon-Dak Conference Championship and the 2013 Region XIII Championship. In his final season at WSC, the Tetons won 27 games, had their best winning percentage in program history and earned the program's first-ever top-25 ranking. The performance led to Mon-Dak Coach of the Year honors and a pair of NJCAA All-American honors for Marquel Curtis and Trey Dickerson. As the AD, Williston State added hockey and softball during his watch, along with various renovation projects of the WSC facilities.

Peterson was also an assistant coach at Williston State from 2005-09, coaching three All-Americans before departing for two years while serving as an assistant coach at Minnesota State Moorhead.

While at Minnesota State Moorhead, Peterson helped the Dragons to their first winning season in 10 years. The following year, Moorhead opened with 11-straight victories, was ranked as high as No. 16 in the national polls and qualified for the NCAA Tournament. Individually, the Dragons generated a pair of Division II All-Americans in Jordan Riewer and Alex Novak.

Peterson cut his coaching teeth at La Crescent High School in La Crescent, Minn., before coaching the Wisconsin Playground Warriors, regarded as one of the top AAU programs in Milwaukee, Wis.

Peterson is originally from West Salem, Wis., and graduated from UW-La Crosse with a bachelor's degree in physical education. He also holds a master's degree in interdisciplinary studies with a concentration in sports management and education from South Dakota.

Peterson and his wife, Lindsey, have a daughter, Flynn, and three sons, Isaiah, Briggs and Bowen.

DAVID RAGLAND

Assistant Coach • Second Season • Southern Indiana (2003)

David Ragland is entering his second season on the staff at Utah State in 2018-19 after being named an assistant in June, 2018. Ragland has 15 years of coaching experience and joined the Aggies after a two-year stint at Valparaiso.

During the 2017-18 season, Valpo posted a 72-65 victory over the Aggies in the Mountain West/Missouri Valley Challenge with Ragland on the Crusader staff. In his first season at Valparaiso, Ragland helped the Crusaders capture 24 victories, a Horizon League regular season championship and an at-large bid to the NIT. He also mentored Alec Peters, who was the 54th pick in the 2017 NBA Draft after being named the Horizon League Player of the Year. The 2016-17 season at Valpo also generated a pair of all-conference selections, as Peters was named first team and Shane Hammink earned second-team honors.

Ragland's primary responsibility at Valpo was the offense, where the Crusaders finished in the top five of the Missouri Valley last season in points per game and scoring margin, and finished third in field goal percentage.

Prior to his arrival in Valparaiso, Ind., Ragland spent one season at Northern Kentucky, where he laid the groundwork for a program in its infancy. The Norse finished the year 9-21 in their first year in the Horizon League, but earned the conference's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament the very next year, finishing with a mark of 24-11 behind a recruiting class that Ragland helped to bring together. Two of his recruits, Jalen Tate and Lavonne Holland II, went on to earn all-Horizon League honors during the 2017-18 season.

program's first postseason victory since 1975, a 67-64 win over Saint Francis (Pa.) in the first round of the CollegeInsider.com Tournament. Under his tutelage, Richaun Holmes earned first-team all-MAC honors, was named the MAC Defensive Player of the Year and was drafted No. 37 in the 2015 NBA Draft. While at BGSU, Ragland recruited Matt Fox, who finished his career ranked fifth in school history in career 3-point shooting. Ragland was also a member on the bench at Indiana State, serving as an assistant coach from 2010-14 and helping the

Ragland spent the 2014-15 season on the staff at Bowling Green, helping the Falcons to a 21-win season, including the Sycamores to postseason appearances all four years. The run included a berth in the 2010-11 NCAA Tournament. ISU totaled close to 80 wins over the same span and beat four nationally-ranked opponents. Individually, Ragland helped to mentor Jake Odum, a three-time all-Missouri Valley honoree, and Khristian Smith, who was named the Missouri Valley Sixth Man of the Year during the 2013-14 season. Ragland began his coaching career as an assistant at Frank Phillips College, before moving on to Vincennes, where he was promoted to head coach after serving three years as an assistant. Ragland's head coaching tenure included back-to-back 22-win seasons, extending a streak of 29 straight years with 20 or more wins for the program. He also led the Blazers to the finals of NJCAA District Tournament during the 2009-10 season.

As a player, Ragland played two years at Southern Indiana, helping guide the Screaming Eagles to a total of 47 victories and leading the team in assists each year. He began his playing career at Missouri Southern State College, helping the team to a 30-3 record as a freshman and a spot at the NCAA Division II Final Four.

MOUNTAIN WEST

THIS IS THE MOUNTAIN WEST

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 19th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

The Mountain West has marked several achievements during its first 18 years, most notably becoming the first to establish a sports television network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference (The Mtn.). The Mountain West also was the first to experiment with the coaches' challenge in the college football instant replay system, and was the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference to participate in four BCS bowl games, winning three. In the inaugural year of the new College Football Playoff system, Boise State earned the automatic slot into a New Year's Six bowl game as the highest-ranked champion from the Group of Five 5 conferences. The Broncos defeated then 10th-ranked Arizona 38-30 in the VIZIO Fiesta Bowl. In 2011-12, the Mountain West was among the first conferences to implement a league-wide state-of-the-art basketball instant replay system.

Changes in the NCAA governance structure set the table for another Conference first, when two members of the MW Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) were included in the June 2014 meeting of the Mountain West Board of Directors. New Mexico track and field athlete Kendall Spencer, the national chair of the 2014-15 NCAA Division I Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, and Air Force Academy volleyball player Emma Dridge joined the BOD members in this historic meeting to advance the discussion on student-athlete involvement in the NCAA and MW governance structure. During the last three academic years, MW student-athletes participated on monthly membership calls and have joined MW administrators in the annual Joint Council Spring Meetings in Arizona.

The Mountain West is well-represented within the new NCAA governance structure, including individuals who were appointed to serve on committees tasked with managing the day-to-day business of Division I athletics. Colorado State President Tony Frank currently sits on the DI Board of Directors, while MW Commissioner Craig Thompson and Fresno State

Faculty Athletics Representative Dawn Lewis are members of the DI Council. Kendall Spencer, the former chair of the DI Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and UNM track & field athlete, was the first student-athlete in the history of the organization to serve on the Division I Board.

Additionally, the Mountain West was the first conference to have a member institution with No. 1 overall picks in both the NFL and NBA drafts in the same year (Utah's Alex Smith and Andrew Bogut, respectively in 2005). With UNLV's Anthony Bennett claiming the No. 1 pick in the 2013 NBA Draft, the Mountain West is one of three conferences to have multiple No. 1 NBA draft selections since 2000. Also, with San Diego State's Stephen Strasburg earning the No. 1 pick in the 2009 MLB Draft, the Mountain West is one of two conferences to have the No. 1 selection in each of the NFL, NBA and MLB drafts since the MW was founded in 1999.

The Mountain West is noted for its aeographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders five MW institutions (Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, New Mexico and Utah State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet - the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert cities of Las Vegas and Reno, home to UNLV and Nevada, respectively, while Fresno State, San Diego State and San Jose State add a West coast influence with their locations in Central, Southern and Northern California. The inclusion of the Hawai'i football program extends the Mountain West footprint to the beautiful islands in the Pacific Ocean, while the addition of the women's soccer program at Colorado College gives the MW an additional presence in the Rocky Mountains.

HISTORY

The Mountain West was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The split from a former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Three of the MW's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well LINIV and TCU entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MW in 1999. TCU re-joined the group with its first year of competition in the Mountain West in 2005-06. With conference realignment sweeping the nation in recent years, the MW has been proactive in addressing membership changes. Boise State University joined the Mountain West in 2011-12, followed by Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012. Also on July 1, 2012, the University of Hawai'i became a football-only member of the Conference. On July 1, 2013, the Mountain West further expanded when San José State University and Utah State University joined the Conference, bringing to 11 the number of full-time member institutions and 12 football-playing members. On July 1, 2014. the Colorado College women's soccer program became the first non-football affiliate member of the Mountain West, expanding that sport to 12 Conference participants.

When the Mountain West officially began operations on July 1, 1999, the new league had in place a seven-year contract with ESPN, giving the broadcast entity exclusive national television rights to MW football and men's basketball, and three-year agreements to send the league's football champion to the Liberty Bowl and a second team to the Las Vegas Bowl. Commissioner Thompson also arranged a third bowl tiein each of the first three seasons (1999 Motor City, 2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans) before securing a four-year deal with the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco in 2002.

Entering the 2017 season, the MW has agreements with seven (7) different bowl games that will generate at least five (5) guaranteed postseason opportunities for its member institutions. These include primary positions with the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, Gildan New Mexico Bowl, NOVA® Home Loans Arizona Bowl, Las Vegas Bowl, and Hawai'i Bowl - and secondary positions with the Ticket City Cactus Bowl and the Foster Farms Bowl.

An innovator in the postseason bowl structure, the MW engineered many "firsts," as league teams have participated in seven inaugural bowl games (2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans, 2002 San Francisco (Emerald), 2005 Poinsettia, 2006 New Mexico, 2015 Arizona, 2015 Cure), as well as placing the first non-automatic-qualifying FBS team into a BCS bowl game with Utah's appearance in the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and into the College Football Playoff (CFP) with Boise State's selection to the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

PRESIDENT NOELLE E. COCKETT

NOELLE E. COCKETT

University President

Noelle E. Cockett was appointed as Utah State University's 16th President in October 2016, beginning her official tenure in January 2017. She is USU's first female president and the only female president with Utah's higher education system.

Since becoming president, Cockett has worked to improve the mission and vision of the university where the outstanding scholars, educators, and students, collectively embody a tradition of greatness.

It is a great time to be an Aggie. In national rankings, the university continues to gain ground. Utah State University was ranked as the No. 5 public university in the nation in "National Universities Rankings 2018" by Washington Monthly and is the No. 2 highest-ranked public university in the nation with lowest tuition in "America's Best Value Colleges" by Forbes. The university's award-winning faculty continue to receive accolades. In March 2018, physics professor David Peak was named as a 2018 recipient of the National Council on Undergraduate Research-Goldwater Scholars Faculty Mentor Award.

And the university's facilities continue to astound thanks, in part, to many Utah State University alumni and friends who are so generous in their support of the institution. In May 2018, the university celebrated the opening for the Sorenson Legacy Foundation Center for Clinical Excellence on the north side of campus and the Life Sciences Building was dedicated in spring 2019.

Prior to being named Utah State's President, Cockett was serving as Executive Vice President and Provost at USU and has held that position since 2013. Prior to that, she served USU as Vice President for Extension from 2006 to 2013; Dean of the College of Agriculture and Applied Sciences from 2002 to 2013; and Director of the Utah Agriculture Experiment Station from 2009 to 2013.

Cockett has built a distinguished career in sheep genomics research, maintaining an active research program even while serving in various leadership positions at Utah State University. Her research program has centered on the identification of genetic markers associated with economically important traits in sheep, as well as the development of resources that advance research on the sheep genome. Cockett and her colleagues published an article describing the sheep genome sequence in Science in 2014. Her current project focuses on the identification of genetic regions associated with entropion in newborn lambs. Cockett has served as the United States coordinator for sheep genome mapping since 1993 and is an active member of the International Sheep Genomics Consortium.

As an active researcher, Cockett has received many awards and After receiving her master's and doctorate in animal breeding and genetics from Oregon State University in 1983 and 1985, respectively, Cockett spent five years as a research geneticist at the United States Department of Agriculture, Agriculture Research Service U.S. Meat Animal Research Center in Clay Center, Nebraska. She joined Utah State University in 1990 as a researcher and assistant professor in the Department of Animal, Dairy and Veterinary Sciences in the College of Agriculture and Applied Sciences.

Cockett, who earned her bachelor's degree from Montana State in animal science in 1980, grew up on a beef cattle ranch in eastern Montana and is married to John Cockett, Director of Technology in USU's Emma Eccles Jones College of Education and Human Services. Noelle and John have two children, Dylan and Chantelle.

VP/AD JOHN HARTWELL

JOHN HARTWELL

University Vice President/ Director of Athletics

Since being named Vice President and Director of Athletics at Utah State on June 2, 2015, John Hartwell has cast his vision for Aggie Athletics, which embodies maximum effort academically, athletically and socially to ensure success in both the classroom and on the fields of competition.

Hartwell has also focused his time on maximizing and increasing the department's revenue streams, along with planning for future facility renovations to both Maverik Stadium and the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum.

In his time at Utah State, Hartwell has already rebranded the fundraising arm of the athletics department with the creation of Aggies Unlimited, which puts all giving under one umbrella.

Utah State also entered into a new partnership with the Larry H. Miller Sports & Entertainment Group to be its flagship radio station for Aggie Athletics, which gives USU additional advertising opportunities throughout Cache Valley and the Wasatch Front, in addition to more control over each broadcast.

Additionally, Hartwell has overseen the completion of the $36 million, 85,000-square foot West Stadium Center on the west side of Maverik Stadium, which includes 24 luxury suites, 20 loge boxes, over 700 covered club seats and a premium club area that is also used to host a student-athlete training table. Renovations also included new video boards on both the north and south ends of the stadium, along with a new public address system, while major concourse work significantly increased restrooms and upgraded concessions.

Under Hartwell's leadership, Utah State athletics has seen unparalleled success during the past four years, which includes arguably the best two-year stretch ever.

The just completed 2018-19 academic year saw both its football and men's basketball teams nationally ranked as Utah State was one of just five institutions to have both programs ranked in the final Associated Press polls. Collectively, USU produced a combined 39-9 record between football (11-2) and men's basketball (28-7) this past year, which is a single-season school record. That 39-9 mark was tied for the fourth-best winning percentage and seventh-most wins nationally. Furthermore, football tied the school record for wins with its 11-2 record, while men's basketball went 28-7 to tie for the third-most victories in program history. In all, the 2018-19 academic year marked just the third time in school history that football and men's basketball advanced to a bowl game and the NCAA Tournament, respectively.

Furthermore, first-year head coach Craig Smith, who Hartwell hired, led Utah State's men's basketball program to its first-ever Mountain West regular season title and tournament championship after entering the season picked ninth in the preseason polls. Additionally, its football program was picked to finish fourth in the Mountain Division of the Mountain West, but posted a 7-1 league mark to tie for first in the division. At season's end, both program's head coaches were named Mountain West Coach of the Year.

Not to be outdone, the 2017-18 academic year was arguably the best in school history under Hartwell as Aggie Athletics ranked 78th nationally in the Learfield Director's Cup Standings, which is by far the best finish for USU in the Cup's 25 years, while its 400-plus student-athletes achieved a school-record 3.25 grade-point average.

In 2017-18, Utah State's men's tennis program won its third-straight Mountain West regular season championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the second time in as many years. In fact, men's tennis won the school's first Mountain West regular season (2016) and tournament championships (2017) since joining the Conference in 2013 and finished the 2017 campaign with a school-record 23 wins and a final national ranking of No. 45.

Additionally, Utah State's track & field/cross country teams had their best seasons in school history in 2017-18, highlighted by the men's programs finishing the year ranked 10th nationally by the U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association. During the 2017-18 seasons, the Aggie men placed 27th in their first-ever appearance in the NCAA Cross Country Championships, followed by a 28th-place finish at the NCAA Indoor Championships and an 18th-place finish at the NCAA Outdoor Championships as its student-athletes combined to garner 12 All-America honors. On the women's side, USU's cross country program finished 14th in its first-ever appearance at the NCAA Championships, while its student-athletes combined to garner three All-America honors during the 2017-18 academic year

Aggie football also excelled during the 2017-18 academic year, playing in its sixth bowl game in the past seven seasons.

Aggie softball has also seen increased success in the recent past as they finished the 2017 campaign with a 33-18 record, including a 14-9 Mountain West mark, and advanced to the National Softball Invitational, marking the program's first postseason appearance since 1993. In fact, those 33 overall wins and 14 league victories are its most since 1996, as USU finished the 2017 season tied for third place in the league.

Even more impressive is Utah State's continued successes by its student-athletes in the classroom as they have a 92 percent graduation success rate, which is the highest in the Mountain West, and a cumulative 3.24 grade-point average. During the 2018-19 academic year, USU had 170 student-athletes earn academic all-Mountain West honors, while 120 were named Mountain West Scholar-Athletes. Additionally, USU recognized 206 student-athletes at its annual Joe E. and Elma Whitesides Luncheon for earning a 3.2 or better GPA.

Hartwell came to Utah State after spending three years as the Athletics Director at Troy, where he laid the groundwork for the future of Trojan Athletics by spearheading several significant upgrades to its athletic facilities, including the addition of a new $2 million practice facility for the golf teams, a $3 million renovation and expansion of the softball facility and a $2.1 million improvement to Veterans Memorial Stadium, while also securing funding for lights to be installed at the soccer and track complex. Hartwell also unveiled the North End Zone Project for Veterans Memorial Stadium, a $25 million project that will be the new home for Trojan football.

Troy's athletics programs have also seen vast improvement on the fields of play due to Hartwell's leadership and oversight, including the football program posting a 31-8 record the past three seasons under Neal Brown, who

VP/AD JOHN HARTWELL

Hartwell hired, not to mention the Trojans being the first Sun Belt Conference team to ever appear in either the Associated Press or Coaches Poll. Men's basketball won the 2017 Sun Belt Conference Tournament and advanced to its first NCAA Tournament since 2003, while the women's basketball program won back-to-back Sun Belt Tournament championships and appeared in two-straight NCAA Tournaments in 2017 and 2018. Troy's golf programs have also excelled as the women's program has won three of the past five Sun Belt titles, while men's golf advanced to three-straight NCAA Regionals from 2016-18. Another Hartwell hire, Mark Smartt, led Troy baseball to a 42-win season and an at-large NCAA bid in 2018.

Under Hartwell, Troy Athletics saw a significant enhancement in fundraising and external relations as he completely overhauled Troy's External Affairs division of the Athletics Department to increase revenues and enhance the fan and game day experience. Part of the makeover was the creation of a new external model, which included the addition of a Senior Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs; bringing corporate sponsorships in house with a partnership with Rockbridge Sports Group; and the development of the Troy Affinity Program to further engage Troy students in athletics.

Hartwell's strong business background also proved to be valuable at Troy as he negotiated a new footwear and apparel deal with Adidas, while also securing home-and-home football games with Duke and North Carolina State in addition to yielding a home basketball game with Mississippi. Hartwell's tenure at Troy also saw a record number of student-athletes earn a 3.0 grade-point-average, an upward trend in APR scores and additional staff positions in Troy's academic support department. During the 2014-15 academic year, Troy student-athletes finished with a 3.01 cumulative grade-point-average and over 57 percent of Troy's student-athletes had a 3.0 GPA or higher.

At Troy, Hartwell served on the NCAA Division I Basketball Issues Committee, the Division I-A Board of Trustees Executive Committee, and the NCAA Division I Council as the Sun Belt Conference representative. He has also been an instructor at the Division I-A Institute for aspiring athletic directors.

Prior to being the Director of Athletics at Troy, Hartwell spent nine-plus years at the University of Mississippi, where he was the Senior Executive Associate Athletics Director, serving as the number two administrator in athletics.

Hartwell served as the Treasurer and Chief Operating Officer of the Mississippi Athletic Association Foundation, a 501 (c)(3) organization that generated over $17 million annually for the Ole Miss Athletics Department through priority seating and major gifts.

He was responsible for the day-to-day administrative oversight of the football, men's basketball and baseball programs, along with sport oversight of the softball and men's and women's track & field and cross country programs. Hartwell also oversaw the Rebels' business office, ticket office, equipment room, merchandise sales, concessions and football scheduling.

Hartwell scheduled several marquee football games for the Rebels, including a home-and-home series with Texas that began in 2012.

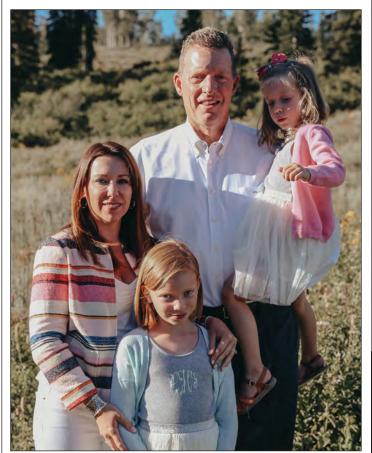

Hartwell managed the growth of the Ole Miss athletic budget from $26 million in the 2003 fiscal year to over $47 million in the 2012 fiscal year. He also chaired the search to hire men's basketball head coach Andy Kennedy in 2006. He was heavily involved in negotiations that increased revenues with contracts for apparel and footwear (Nike), merchandise sales (Sports Avenue/LIDS), concessions (Centerplate), wireless provider (C Spire) and video boards (Daktronics). He served on the Southeastern Conference Ticket Committee and started the annual SEC Chief Financial Officers Forum.

A 1987 graduate of The Citadel, the 54-year old Hartwell spent four-plus years as a certified public accountant with Ernst & Young before returning to his alma mater to serve as the Director of Internal Audit in 1991. From 1994 to 1997, he was in private business as the Chief Financial Officer for a $36 million beverage distributor on the South Carolina coast.

Hartwell's direct experience in athletics administration began as the Assistant Athletics Director for Business at Georgia State in 1997. He was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Internal Affairs in 1999, and his responsibilities expanded to include sport supervision for baseball, men's and women's golf, men's and women's track & field and cross country. He also had oversight over the Panthers' athletic facilities and game management in addition to his previous responsibilities of all financial aspects of the department. While at Georgia State, Hartwell earned a master's degree in sports administration.

Athletics has always been a big part of Hartwell's life, starting in high school where he was an all-state basketball selection at UMS-Wright in Mobile, Ala. The 6-foot-7 forward played in high school alongside former North Carolina State and Alabama head coach Mark Gottfried, who is now the head coach at Cal State Northridge. Hartwell went on to play collegiately at The Citadel, where he was a three-year starter, a four-year letterman and captain of the team as a senior in 1987.

Hartwell is married to Dr. Heather Seale Hartwell, and they have two daughters, Lauren (10) and Madison (7). Hartwell also has a 27-year old son, Hunter, a Vanderbilt graduate who lives in Atlanta.
