A TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

- Utah State's 30 wins during the 2010-11 season are tied with the 2008-09 team for most in school history and its $30-4$ record is the best-ever at USU. Utah State also won 25 -straight Western Athletic Conference games during the 2009-10 and 2010-11 seasons, to set a school and league record.
-Utah State's current streak winning four-straight Western Athletic Conference regular season championships is the longest in school history. The previous record for consecutive conference titiles was two during the 1935-36 season in the Rocky Mountain Athletics Conference and the 1997-98 season in the Big West Conference.
- Utah State finished the 2010-11 season ranked No. 25 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' Poll, marking the first time since 1978 that USU has been nationally ranked at the end of the season. It is also just the eighth time in school history that USU has finished the season nationally ranked. USU was ranked for nine straight weeks to end the 2010-11year, which is its longest streak since the 1970-71 team was ranked for 11 straight weeks. Overall, it was the third time in the last eight years that USU has been nationally ranked.
- Over the last 12 years, Utah State has averaged 25.8 wins and is one of just three schools in the nation to win at least 23 games in each of those seasons joining Gonzaga and Kansas.
- Over the past 12 years, Utah State has won seven regular season conference championships and six tournament championships.
- Utah State has advanced to 12 straight postseason appearances, which is a school record, going to the NCAA Tournament in 2000, 2001, 2003, 2005, 2006, 2009, 2010 and 2011, and to the National Invitation Tournament in 2002, 2004, 2007 and 2008.
- Over the last 12 years, Utah State has gone 25-6 (.806) in conference postseason tournaments and has advanced to the championship game 10 times.

- Over the past 12 seasons, Utah State has gone 309-90 overall and 159-43 in conference play. Those 309 wins are the sixth-most in the country over that time period, while its 77.4 percent winning percentage is the fourth-best in the country.
- Over the past 12 years, Utah State has had five All-American selections, 20 first-team all-conference selections, 30 all-conference selections (first and second team) and 42 conference player of the week honorees, not to mention Stew Morrill being named the league's Coach of the Year on five separate occasions (2000, 2002, 2009, 2010, 2011).
-The 1999-2000 team set a then school record with 28 wins and went a perfect 19-0 in the Big West Conference, marking only the third time in league history a team has gone undefeated.

DEE GLEN SMITH SPECTRUM

The Aggies begin their 42nd season in the 10,270-seat Dee Glen Smith Spectrum this fall, looking to continue a tradition of large crowds and home court wins.

Utah State has had just one losing season at home in more than a quarter century of play in the Spectrum. The Aggies have compiled a 487-106 (.821) record in 41 years, including a perfect 14-0 mark in 1973-74, 15-0 records in 1997-98 and 2000-01, and 17-0 records in 2007-08, 2008-09 and 2010-11. In the last 15 years, Utah State has posted a 125-8 (.940) record against league opponents and has won 221 of its last 236 games against all competition in the Spectrum.

Large crowds are another characteristic of the arena, as the Aggies have averaged better than 7,000 fans per game in 37 of its 41 seasons in the Spectrum. USU brought in over 148,000 spectators last year and more than four million fans have attended Aggie basketball games in the Spectrum. In fact, Utah State had 148,449 fans attend home games during the 2010-11 season, marking the 17th straight year that USU has drawn more than 100,000 fans. Furthermore, the average of 8,449 fans per game marks the eighth-straight season that USU has averaged better than 8,000 fans per game.

The impressive facility has helped bring various postseason events to Logan, including first-round National Invitation Tournament games in 1984, 1996, 2002 and 2004. In addition, the Spectrum played host to a 1971 NCAA Tournament game.

The Aggie gymnastics, volleyball and women's basketball teams call the Spectrum home as well. The Spectrum was the site of the 1983, 1993 and 1999 NCAA Midwest Region Gymnastics Championships, and hosted the 2000 Big West Conference Gymnastics Championships, the 2002 Western Gymnastics Conference Championships and the 2005 WAC Championships.
 In addition to sporting events, the Spectrum is utilized for concerts, graduation, the Festival of the American West and other special events.

The Smith Spectrum was dedicated on Dec. 1, 1970, prior to a $95-89$ victory against Ohio State. Over the past 10 years, the Spectrum has taken on a new look as a new state-of-the-art scoreboard, sound system and additional lights were installed prior to the 2002 season to go along with new scorer's tables that were added prior to the 2001 season. In the summer of 2009, renovations to the existing men's and women's basketball locker rooms were made, along with the creation of a new student-athlete lounge and study area. Dressing rooms for four teams are available. The playing floor, which was replaced in the summer of 2004, is permanent and is constructed of maple hardwood on a cushion, over concrete.

The arena is named for Brigham City native Dee Glen Smith, who built one of America's largest grocery store chains and was a substantial supporter of Utah State University. Smith died in 1984.

GREAT FAN SUPPORT

Last year, an average of nearly 9,000 fans packed the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum for every contest to watch their Aggies win 20 -plus games for the 12th-straight season. Utah State ranked first in the WAC in attendance with nearly 150,000 people in attendance during the season as USU had two sellouts during the year.

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

Playing in the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum is definitely an advantage for the Aggies. In the 13year Stew Morrill era, Utah State teams have won 94 percent of their home games (193-13). The Aggies have a 487-106 (.821) all-time record in the facility.

Utah State has gone unbeaten six times in the Spectrum's 41-year history. The Aggies have also never lost back-to-back home games under Morrill.

The Aggies have won 221 of their last 236 games (.936) in the Spectrum, including 116 of their last 124 (.935) home games against league competition.

During the last four seasons, Utah State teams have combined to record a 32-game winning streak against WAC opponents, setting a school record. Overall, USU has won 68 of its last 69 games in the building including 31 straight, which ranks as the thirdlongest active winning streak in the nation.

During the 2011-12 season, Utah State will play 17 games in the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum including matchups with Brigham Young, Kent State, Hawaili, Nevada and New Mexico State.

LOGAN & CACHE VALLEY

With a population of 101,811 , nearly 50,000 of whom live in Logan, Cache County is a growing area $\mathbf{8 0}$ miles north of Salt Lake City. The Cache Valley itself is 60 miles long and 15 miles wide and experiences each of the four seasons.

Fifteen minutes beyond Beaver Mountain, the summit of Logan Canyon is a breathtaking view of turquoise-colored Bear Lake.

"Anytime you start over with a lot of new players, there is the challenge of trying to make a new group mesh with a few veterans to see what you have. I hope I'm as excited in February as I am now about coaching this team. We have taken some things for granted the last few years that will be re-emphasized in terms of what has worked for us at Utah State. Practice habits, character, togetherness, all those things are so important and have been for years around here. Certainly talent level is something we're not quite sure where we're at right now and time will tell, but it should be a challenge and it should be fun and I hope our fans will embrace this team as we go along. We just hope we are a lot better team by the time we get to WAC play than we will be on the first day of practice in October." --- USU head coach Stew Morrill

Starting over. In a sense, that is what Utah State is doing this year under veteran head coach Stew Morrill after losing six seniors that combined to win a school-record four-straight regular season Western Athletic Conference Championships, advance to three-straight NCAA Tournaments, win two WAC Tournament Championships in three years and produce a fouryear record of 111-28 (.799).

Despite everything that Utah State lost from last season, expectations surrounding the Aggie program will not change as a culture of winning has been established under Morrill, the reigning three-time WAC Coach of the Year. And that tradition includes an active streak of winning at least 23 games in each of the last 12 seasons and advancing to 12 -straight postseason tournaments (8-NCAA, 4-NIT), both of which are school-records. USU also has the fourth-best winning percentage in the nation during the past 12 seasons at 77.4 percent (309-90), and has gone 75-21 (.781) in its six years in the WAC, the best record by any team in the league.
"I want this group to believe they can be successful; I just want them to go about it the right way, which is day-by-day," said Morrill. "You can' $\dagger$ win a WAC Championship by talking about it; you've got to go to work. We won't be favored to win the WAC and that will be the first time in a while. I don't know if I would call us an underdog, but you have a chance to prove that maybe you're better than where you're picked. I suspect we'll be picked somewhere in the middle of the pack. Whatever motivates you to go to work and do what it takes day-by-day to get better, I'm okay with that. Our goals don't change much. Try and win our next game and stay together, that is what is on our goal sheet every year and that's just kind of how we go about it."

Morrill's old-school style and philosophy has translated into him becoming the winningest coach in 108 years of Aggie basketball as he owns a gaudy 324-103 (.759) record in 13 years - ranking as the second-longest tenured coach in school history - to go along with a 167-49 (.773) conference record and a 25-7 (.781) mark in conference tournament play. He has also been awarded conference coach of the year honors on five separate occasions during his time at Utah State, including being named the 2009, 2010 and 2011 WAC Coach of the Year.

Leading the way for Utah State heading into the 2011-12 season will be the reigning WAC Tournament Most Valuable Player in senior point guard Brockeith Pane who also earned first-team all-WAC honors and was named to the league's all-newcomer team during his first year in an Aggie uniform. As a junior, Pane ranked fourth in the WAC in free throw shooting (.802), fifth in assists (3.41) and sixth in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.32), while averaging 11.8 points and 3.1 rebounds per game.
"I think Brockeith should be one of the best players in the league this year; he was last year by the second half of league play," Morrill said. "What's important to me is that he gets better. Everybody in the league knows he's a power guard and that he gets to the line and that he gets in the lane and makes plays, and we certainly need that and expect that, but we also need him to be a more consistent shooter and to be a better defender. We can't hide him defensively like we could at times last year, so the parts of his game that weren't as strong, I expect to improve and yet still remember where his strengths are"

Another strength returning for Utah State this year will be senior forward Brady Jardine who has played in 91 games with seven starts during his first three years at USU. Last season, Jardine averaged 7.5 points and 7.0 rebounds, while shooting 54.1 percent from the field and 64.7 percent at the free throw line. He finished the season ranking sixth in the WAC with 1.00 blocks per game and ranks sixth all-time in school history with 69 career blocks.
"Brady's been like a starter the last couple years in a lot of ways, even though he hasn't had the opportunities that a starter gets minute-wise and shots and those kinds of things. So I'm really anxious, and I'm sure Brady is too, to see what he can do as a go-to-guy, and that's what he's got to be for us is a go-to-guy. I have no question of the effort and the confidence he'll put into it. Brady is a very valuable guy in terms of character and effort, so his senior season should be really special. That's what we think, and I know that's what he wants too."

Along with Pane and Jardine, Utah State returns two more letterwinners from last season in senior forward Morgan Grim and junior guard E.J. Farris. Grim appeared in 32 games as a redshirt junior and averaged 2.6 points and 1.6 rebounds in 8.7 minutes per outing, while Farris played in 21 games and averaged 1.9 points in 7.3 minutes per game.

Utah State will also have the services of a trio of redshirts this year in junior guard Antonio Bumpus, sophomore guard Preston Medlin and freshman forward Ben Clifford. Bumpus earned third-team NJCAA All-America honors both years at Harcum (Pa.) College and averaged 18.3 points and 4.9 rebounds per game during his sophomore season. Medlin played in 22 games as a true freshman for USU during the 2009-10 season and averaged 3.7 points, while shooting 40.9 percent from the field, 37.5 percent from three-point range and 92.9 percent at the free throw line. And Clifford earned first-team all-state honors as a senior at Bingham High School in South Jordan, Utah as he averaged 16.6 points.
"I think we've always depended a great deal on our seniors and our veterans for leadership and production on the court, they kind of go hand－in－hand，but it＇s been a long time since it＇s been as important as it probably is this season with this many new players with the experience we lost．The seniors need to feel how imperative it is for them to set the tone on what Aggie basketball is about， why we＇ve won championships，how hard we have to do things to be successful，the respect we have to have for coaches and players alike，all the things that go into our program．There＇s just a lot of new players that have never experienced it so it＇s up to all of us，but certainly the seniors play a big part of it to show them the way，＂Morrill said．

That group of newcomers－which includes four junior college transfers，five high school players and one four－year transfer－will be expected to make immediate contri－ butions at numerous positions from the opening day of fall camp．

Highlighting this group is a pair of junior college transfers in junior forward Kyisean Reed and sophomore forward Mitch Bruneel．Reed averaged 17.1 points， 6.3 rebounds， 1.5 blocks and 1.5 steals per game this past season at Antelope Valley（Calif．）Junior College，as he shot 62.3 percent from the field and 67.0 percent at the free throw line． Bruneel averaged 10.0 points and 5.2 rebounds as a freshman at the College of South－ ern Idaho，helping the Golden Eagles to a $33-4$ record and a National Junior College Athletic Association（NJCAA）National Championship．

Four other newcomers who are expected to see extensive playing time this year include junior forward Igor Premasunac，sophomore guard／forward Danny Berger， and freshman guards Steven Thornton and Adam Thoseby．Premasunac averaged 9.3 points and 5.3 rebounds as a sophomore at Lon Morris（Texas）Junior College，while Berger averaged 16.1 points and 4.8 rebounds as a freshman at Chemeketa（Ore．） Community College during the 2008－09 season．Thornton averaged approximately 19.0 points and 5.0 boards as a prep senior at Golden Valley（Calif．）High School．And Thoseby averaged 7.3 points and 1.4 rebounds this past season at Maine Central Insti－ tute Prep，and scored nearly 27.0 points per game as a high school senior playing for the Under 18 Reading Rockets in Great Britain．

Other additions to the program include freshman forward David Collette，freshman guard Sam Orchard and freshman center Jordan Stone．Collette averaged 22.4 points and 8.8 rebounds this past season for Murray（Utah）High School，while Stone averaged approximately 18.0 points and 11.0 rebounds as a prep senior at Sky View（Utah）High School during the 2007－08 campaign．Orchard，a walk－on from Highland（Utah）High School，averaged 16.2 points and 3.2 rebounds a year ago．

The final addition to the 2011－12 roster is a transfer from Oklahoma State in junior center Jarred Shaw，who must sit out this season．In two years at OSU，Shaw appeared in 44 games averaging 1.2 points and 1.2 rebounds as a sophomore．

As for the WAC，Utah State will be looking to defend both its regular season and tournament championship as USU has won four－straight regular season titles and two WAC Tournaments in the past three years．
＂For the first time in several years，we will not be the favorite in the WAC．We hope the challenges of the preseason will help us improve enough to be a competitive WAC team．Nevada，New Mexico State and Hawai＇i appear to be very strong and we look forward to seeing how it all shakes out，＂Morrill said．

SCHEDULE

Utah State will play a total of 31 games during the regular season，which includes four contests against in－state opponents and a minimum of 11 games against postsea－ son teams from a year ago．

Utah State will also play 17 games in the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum，a venue where it has won 68 of its last 69 contests．Overall，the Aggies have posted an incredible 193－13 （．937）home record under Morrill，which includes a 45－3（．938）mark in WAC play．USU will enter the 2011－12 season having won 31 straight home games，including 28 straight WAC games，to rank as the third－longest active home winning streak in the nation．

Highlighting Utah State＇s non－conference schedule will be home games against in－ state foe Brigham Young along with Kent State and Saint Peter＇s，all postseason teams a year ago．Significant road games include trips to Missouri Valley Conference member Wichita State and to Southeastern Conference member Mississippi State，along with a contest at in－state rival Weber State．

Utah State＇s matchup against Mississippi State will be the first of a three－game series as the Bulldogs will return to Logan during the 2013－14 season，with USU playing its second game in Starksville during the 2014－15 year．Utah State hasn＇t played an SEC school since losing to Vanderbilt（77－56）at the 2007 South Padre Island（Texas）Invita－ tional，and this year＇s game will mark its first SEC road trip since losing at LSU（103－71）on Dec．28，1984．For Utah State，it will be the second－straight year it has traveled to a BCS school，playing at Georgetown last season．

Overall，Utah State＇s non－conference schedule consists of five games against postseason teams from a year ago as it will host Brigham Young，Kent State and Saint Peter＇s，and play at Weber State and Wichita State．Both the Cougars and Saint Peter＇s played in the NCAA Tournament a year ago，while Kent State and Wichita State both participated in the National Invitational Tournament（NIT）in 2011，with the Shockers winning the championship．Weber State concluded its 2011 season in the College Bas－ ketball Invitational（CBI）．

In all，Utah State＇s non－conference schedule consists of nine teams with winning records in 2011，including four who won at least 20 games．Other postseason teams from the 2010－11 season on Utah State＇s schedule include Hawai＇i and Idaho who both played in the CollegeInsider．com Tournament，and San Jose State who participated in the CBI．

Utah State will open the season with three straight in-state games, including its season opener at home against Brigham Young on Friday, Nov. 11. USU will then play at Weber State on Tuesday, Nov. 15 and host Southern Utah on Saturday, Nov. 19. The Aggies will then play a pair of road games at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi (Nov. 22) and at Idaho State (Nov. 26) before concluding the month of November at home against future WAC member Denver on Wednesday, Nov. 30.

Utah State will begin December with a road game at former Big West Conference foe Pacific on Saturday, Dec. 3, before returning home to host Utah Valley on Tuesday, Dec. 6. USU will then travel to Wichita State on Saturday, Dec. 10 followed by a home game against future WAC member Seattle on Saturday, Dec. 17. Utah State will then host another future WAC member in Texas-Arlington, along with Saint Peter's and Kent State in the 2011 Athletes in Action Classic sponsored by Gossner Foods which runs from Tuesday, Dec. 20 through Thursday, Dec. 22. Following the Christmas holiday, USU will conclude its preseason with a road game at Mississippi State on Saturday, Dec. 31.

One team not on Utah State's schedule this upcoming season is instate rival Utah, snapping a streak of 67 straight years that the two schools have met annually. The two teams, who have played each other 223 times overall, will not be facing one another for the first time since the 1943-44 season as USU did not field a team that year due to World War II. In fact, the only other time USU and UU have not played when both schools have had teams was during the 1919-20 campaign.

As the calendar turns to 2012, Utah State will return home and begin its quest for a fifth-straight WAC regular season title on Thursday, Jan. 5 against Fresno State, followed by another home game versus Nevada on Saturday, Jan. 7.

Following a stretch with six of seven games at home, Utah State will end the month of January and begin February by playing six of eight games on the road, including four in a row away from Logan against New Mexico State (Jan. 12), Louisiana Tech (Jan. 14), Seattle (Jan. 19) and Idaho (Jan. 21). After hosting Hawai'i and San Jose State on Thursday, Jan. 26 and Saturday, Jan. 28, USU will return to the road for games at Nevada (Feb. 2) and Fresno State (Feb. 4).

Utah State will then return home for a season-long five-game homestand as it hosts Louisiana Tech on Thursday, Feb. 9 and New Mexico State on Saturday, Feb. 11, before hosting non-conference foe Montana Tech on Tuesday, Feb. 14. USU will then participate in the annual ESPN BracketBusters for the seventh-straight year and host an opponent to be determined on Friday, Feb. 17 or Saturday, Feb. 18.

Utah State will return to WAC play on Friday, Feb. 24 as it hosts Idaho in its final home game of the season and then concludes regular season play the following weekend at San Jose State (Mar. 1) and at Hawai'i (Mar. 3).

The 2012 WAC Tournament will once again be held at the Orleans Arena in Las Vegas, Nev., from Mar. 8-10, with all eight teams qualifying. This year's format will be different than last year's in that all eight teams must win three games to win the tournament title.

POINT GUARDS

Utah State has a wealth of talent and experience at the point guard position, highlighted by the return of senior Brockeith Pane, who will be starting for the second straight season. In his first year at USU as a junior, Pane earned first-team all-WAC honors and was named to the league's all-newcomer team after averaging 11.8 points, 3.4 assists and 3.1 rebounds per game, while shooting 43.6 percent from the field and 80.2 percent at the free throw line. Pane, who scored in double-figures 22 times during his junior year including three 20-point games, finished the year ranking fourth in the league in free throw shooting, fifth in assists and sixth in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.32). Pane, the only first-team all-league player returning in the WAC in 2012, was also named the Most Valuable Player of the 2011 WAC Tournament as he averaged 17.5 points in wins against San Jose State (58-54) and Boise State (77-69). Also returning here is junior E.J. Farris who played in 21 games during his first year at USU and averaged 1.9 points in 7.3 minutes per game. Joining Pane and Farris will be freshman walk-on Sam Orchard who was named the 4A Most Valuable Player as a prep senior at Highland (Utah) High School helping his team to a state championship. During his senior year, he averaged 16.2 points and shot 44.3 percent from the field, 37.8 percent from three-point range and 81.4 percent at the free throw line.

SHOOTING GUARDS

Utah State must replace two proven players at the shooting guard position in four-year starter Tyler Newbold and reserve Brian Green, who earned second-team all-WAC honors a year ago. Newbold, who played in 139 games during his Aggie career, including 129 consecutive starts, averaged 6.8 points and 4.4 rebounds as a senior playing a team-best 29.3 minutes per game. Green, who scored in double-figures 16 times during the year, averaged 10.5 points and led the WAC in three-point shooting (.482). Despite the loss of its top two performers here from a year ago, Utah State does return one player who has spent time in the program in sophomore Preston Medlin who redshirted last season. Medlin played in 22 games as a true freshman for USU during the 2009-10 season and averaged 3.7 points, while shooting 40.9 percent from the field, 37.5 percent from three-point range and 92.9 percent at the free throw line. Joining Medlin at this position will be a pair of newcomers in sophomore Danny Berger and freshman Adam Thoseby. Berger, who is coming off a two-year LDS Church Mission, spent his freshman season at Chemeketa (Ore.) Community College where he earned Southern Region first-team honors from the Northwest Athletic Association of Community Colleges as he averaged 16.1 points and shot 53.2 percent from the field, 46.7 percent from three-point range and 82.5 percent from the free throw line. Thoseby spent this past season at Maine Central Institute Prep where he averaged 7.3 point and shot 41.9 percent from the field, 36.2 percent from three-point range and 79.5 percent at the free throw line. As a prep senior in Great Britain, he averaged nearly 27.0 points and 7.0 rebounds per game.

SMALL FORWARDS

Utah State will be looking to a newcomer to fill this position after the graduation of three-year starter Pooh Williams and Newbold, who saw extensive time here as well as at shooting guard. Williams, who played in 131 games with 99 starts during his career, averaged 8.6 points as a senior and scored in double-figures 11 times. Three players will be vying for playing time here in junior Antonio Bumpus, sophomore Mitch Bruneel and freshman Steven Thornton. Bumpus, who redshirted last year at USU, earned third-team NJCAA All-America honors both years at Harcum (Pa.) College and averaged 18.3 points and 4.9 rebounds per game during his sophomore season as he was named the Region 19 Player of the Year after scoring in doublefigures 27 times, including thirteen 20 -point games. Bruneel averaged 10.0 points and 5.2 rebounds as a freshman at the College of Southern Idaho, helping the Golden Eagles to a 33－4 record and a National Junior College Athletic Association（NJCAA）National Championship．As a freshman at CSI，he scored in double－figures 18 times，including four 20－point games and four double－doubles．He finished the year shooting 46.8 percent from the field， 31.0 percent from three－point range and 69.5 percent at the free throw line．Thornton，who sat out last season finishing some required course work，played two years ago for Stoneridge Prep．As a prep senior during the 2008 －09 season，he averaged 19.0 points and 5.0 rebounds at Golden Valley（Calif．）High School earning first－team all－Foothill League honors as Golden Valley won back－to－back league championships．

POWER FORWARDS

Perhaps the biggest unknown heading into the 2011－12 season for Utah State is how it will adjust to the graduation of the reigning WAC Player of the Year in Tai Wesley，who was a four－year starter at power forward and the winningest player in school history with a 111－28（．799）record．As a senior，Wesley averaged 14.8 points and 8.0 rebounds per game，and scored in double－figures 28 times．The leading candidate to fill this void will be senior Brady Jardine who has played in 91 games，including seven starts，during his first three years at USU．As a junior，Jardine averaged 7.5 points and 7.0 rebounds and shot 54.1 percent from the field and 64.7 percent at the free throw line．Jardine also scored in double－figures nine times during his junior year and had six double－figure rebounding games． Another returner here with experience in the program is freshman Ben Clif－ ford who redshited a year ago．As a prep senior at Bingham（Utah）High School，Clifford earned first－team all－state honors and was named the Most Valuable Player of Region III as he averaged 16.6 points and 8.0 rebounds， while scoring in double－figures 22 times．Joining its two veterans will be two newcomers in junior college transfer Kyisean Reed and freshman David Collette．Reed averaged 17.1 points， 6.3 rebounds， 1.5 blocks and 1.5 steals per game this past season at Antelope Valley（Calif．）Junior College，as he shot 62.3 percent from the field and 67.0 percent at the free throw line．And Collette averaged 22.4 points and 8.8 rebounds as a prep senior at Murray （Utah）High School as he was named the 5A－Region 2 MVP．

CENTERS

Utah State will look to replace a two－year starter at center after the graduation of Nate Bendall who averaged 6.5 points and 5.8 rebounds as a senior and was named to the league＇s all－newcomer team as a junior after averaging 10.3 points and 5.5 boards．Senior Morgan Grim is the only player listed among this group with experience in the program after playing in 32 games during his first year at USU and averaging 2.6 points and 1.6 re－ bounds in 8.7 minutes off the bench．Two other players who should see time at the center position include junior college transfer Igor Premasunac and freshman Jordan Stone．Premasunac earned honorable mention all－con－ ference honors as a sophomore at Lon Morris（Texas）Junior College as he averaged 9.3 points and 5.3 rebounds，while shooting 51.9 percent from the field．Stone last played competitive basketball during the 2007－08 season at Sky View（Utah）High School as he earned first－team all－state honors after averaging approximately 18.0 points， 11.0 rebounds and 3.0 blocks per game，while shooting 58.0 percent from the field and 77.0 percent at the free throw line．The fourth player listed here is junior Jarred Shaw，who must sit out this season per NCAA transfer rules after playing the past two years at Oklahoma State．As a sophomore at OSU，Shaw appeared in 26 games and averaged 1.2 points and 1.2 rebounds per game．

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT UTAH STATE HEAD COACH STEW MORRILL

Abstract

Stew Morrill is entering his 14th season at Utah State and 26th season as a collegiate head coach. During the past 13 years, he has led USU to a school record 12 straight 23 -win seasons and 12 straight postseasons. He is also USU's all-fime winningest coach with 324 victories, is first all-time in games coached (427), and is the second-longest tenured coach in school history behind E. Lowell Romney (1920-41).

RILEY WALLACE, former Hawai'i head coach
"He's (won) everywhere he's been, whether it be at Montana, Colorado State or Utah State. When he decided to come back to his home state, I thought it was a good move, because he is much more appreciated in Utah. To come into Utah State and turn that program into a consistent winner tells you he's had good players and good assistant coaches. Being the school's winningest coach means something because you know how hard you've worked, and it will mean even more to him when he's done."

LARRY EUSTACHY, Former Utah State head

coach and current Southern Mississippi head coach

"From an overall standpoint, as far as teaching the game of basketball, I think he's the best in the country and he belongs in the category of a handful of guys like Mike Krzyzewski, Tom Izzo and Rick Pitino. He was very successful at Montana and Colorado State, and he's gotten it done at some difficult places. I know how hard it is to recruit to Utah State and he has gotten that program to where it is now the most revered program in the state, and I don't know of anyone who thought that would be possible."

JERRY SLOAN, Former Utah Jazz Hall of Fame head coach

"I'll say this about the guys we get from Utah State. They all know what's going on. The head coach up there is probably the best coach in the country, in my opinion. He does a great job and the kids we've gotten in here from up there are just wonderful people."

ROD TUELLER, Former Utah State head coach and athletics director "Stew has been an outstanding coach at an outstanding period of time in Utah State Basketball history. He was the right man for the job when he was hired and I couldn't think of a better fit. The one thing that impresses me the most about Stew is his teams compete every year. He takes what he's got and does a wonderful job of coaching. He just seems to make the right decisions at the right time. He has been a tremendous asset to the University and the community, and has given Cache Valley a feeling of togetherness when it comes to basketball. I am as proud as I can be for what he has done for this program and it has been a pleasure being associated with him for all of these years."

DON VERLIN, Former Utah State assistant coach and current Idaho

 head coach"Obviously, I wouldn't be at Idaho if it wasn't for Stew Morrill. I spent 15 years with him and learned the game and how to run a program. The main thing Coach Morrill taught me was organization, attention to detail, and how to run a program the right way from top to bottom, and it's produced a ton of wins. When you get away and out on your own, you find out what you had at Utah State was very good and that there are a lot of good things in place with that program."

LADELL ANDERSEN, Former Utah State head coach

"I really admire Stew. He's been a wonderful coach and has kept a great winning tradition going at Utah State. He has been a great basketball man for a long time, from his playing days at Gonzaga to his coaching days at Montana and Colorado State. As a former coach and alumnus, we are happy to have him at Utah State. For him to have the success he has had is a great accomplishment."

DUTCH BELNAP, Former Utah State head coach

"When you look at the whole program, Stew's been the most successful and that is because he is a strong disciplinarian and has certain fundamentals and principles that he does not waver on. He has been the best coach Utah State has had since the program began, in my opinion. Stew is an excellent coach and recruiter, and he is old school, and that is what I like about him. He is an amazing coach and I take my hat off to him, because he is the best coach the Aggies have ever had."

MIKE MONTGOMERY, Former Stanford and Montana head coach

 and current California head coach"Being familiar with basketball in the West, I know how strong of a program Utah State has had. I think Stew is one of the most underrated coaches in the country. He's been very successful everywhere he's been and he's one of the best X's and O's guys around. What Stew has found at Utah State is a niche and he knows how to win there. The thing that always impressed me about Stew is that he is extremely loyal. When he was an assistant for me he cared about winning as much as I did and sometimes you don't get that with assistants."

BLAINE TAYLOR, Former Montana assistant coach and current Old

 Dominion head coach"As fine of a coach as Stew is, he's a finer human being and the affect he has had on so many people in our profession is profound. To see the path his career has taken and the level of success is really something that doesn't surprise me and l'm very proud and happy for him and his family that things have turned out this way. His preparation, strategic mind and execution of a game plan is as good as anybody in the country. Stew's consistency as a head coach is really eye-opening and I would attribute it to his consistent organization and preparation, and ability to get the most out of his players on a year-to-year basis. He has a tremendous will and resolve that things will be done a certain way and yet has a way about him to make you want to do it regardless of any reservations you might have."

RANDY RAHE, Former Utah State assistant coach and current Weber

 State head coach"In my mind Stew's one of the top five coaches in the country. What he has done at Utah State is mind-boggling. He took a good program and elevated it into one of the best programs in the country as far as winning on a consistent basis. And he's done it the right way with good people and good kids. He has kept his integrity, character and honesty in tact throughout the years and that is amazing in this profession. He is an amazing basketball coach and an even better person. Everything that has happened to me in my coaching career is attributed to Coach Morrill. He has a system he truly believes in and it's phenomenal how he plugs new players into it and keeps producing wins. Since I have become a head coach, what Coach Morrill has done is even more amazing to me because now I know how hard it is to be good for just one season, let alone trying to do it on a regular basis. Trying to prepare for his team is a nightmare. Utah State executes as well as anyone in the country, they play solid defense, rebound well and play extremely hard, and that is a tribute to him as a coach and how disciplined his teams are." Morrill has also graduated over 80 percent of his players since arriving at USU.

SPENCER NELSON, First-Team All-Big West (2005), Big West Conference Hustle Player of the Year (2003-05)

"No matter who you are or where you come from, as long as you buy into Coach Morrill's system you leave Utah State a better basketball player and a better person than when you first arrived. He really personifies Utah State basketball, which is blue-collar, hard-nosed and team-oriented. He sets the example first and the team follows. He helped me develop into the player I am today and played a big part in helping me achieve my dream of playing professionally. He continues to do all he can to help me further my career and I couldn't imagine playing college basketball for any other coach."

TONY BROWN, First-Team All-Big West (2002)

"The biggest thing Coach Morrill taught me is that basketball is a team sport and it takes all five guys on the court to be successful. That concept of team basketball really helped me become a better all-around player. Looking back, I realize how beneficial it was for me to play in a structured offense like Coach Morrill's because I wasn' $\dagger$ as athletic as some guys, so it was a perfect fit for me. I tell people all the time that I couldn't have asked for a better situation than playing basketball at Utah State. We had a lot of great guys on our team that turned out to be great friends. Plus, it was always fun winning."

JAYCEE CARROLL, WAC Player of the Year (2008), First-Team All-

 WAC (2007-08), Big West Conference Tournament MVP (2005)"My experience at Utah State was very positive, and I am very grateful that Coach Morrill and his staff took a chance and gave me an opportunity to play Division I basketball. The thing I enjoyed most about playing for Coach Morrill is he helps you become a better basketball player, and he strives to get the most out of his players and team. One moment that really stands out for me was during my freshman year when he promised us we were going to win the Big West Tournament, and we believed him. It really amazed me that he had that much confidence and faith in us as a team to go out and play and I've always remembered that confidence he had in us."

NATE HARRIS, First-Team All-WAC (2006), First-Team All-Big West (2004-05), Big West Conference Freshman of the Year (2003) "Coach Morrill taught me so many things that helped me evolve into a better player. One of the main areas he helped me at was toughness, both mentally and physically. Throughout my college career with Coach Morrill, I learned to be disciplined and accountable and those two things are very important for me in my everyday life. I couldn't have asked for a better situation and I was very fortunate to go to school at Utah State and play basketball for Coach Morrill and all of his assistants. I was constantly surrounded by good people who ran a basketball program the correct way. Coach Morrill was and still is the foundation of Aggie basketball as we know it today."

DESMOND PENIGAR, First-Team All-Big West (2002-03), Big West Conference Tournament MVP (2003),

"Coach Morrill taught me the concept of team basketball and he taught me how to be part of a team as opposed to playing for yourself. He also taught me that you need to have something to hang your hat on if you want to be successful and consistent with whatever you're doing. After I graduated from Utah State I had to find my niche and I hung my hat on work ethic, and that was what my coaches could depend on, and I learned that from Coach Morrill. Playing for Coach Morrill was difficult and demanding, but at the same time very rewarding. Once I left Utah State I finally understood the life lessons Coach Morrill was trying to teach me and I think that is the most rewarding of all."

BERNARD ROCK, First-Team All-Big West Conference (2001), Big West Conference Tournament MVP (2001)
"I was never a point guard, and Coach Morrill taught me how to run a team and be the coach on the court. I would say the biggest thing he taught me was teamwork, because you can'† be successful in any job you do without teamwork. Playing for Coach Morrill and at Utah State was the best two years of my life. I was on a team where nobody cared about scoring and everybody bought into playing defense. Going to the NCAA Tournament twice was a lot of fun and my first year was especially fun because we had eight new players and nobody knew what to expect."

TROY ROLLE, First-Team All-Big West Conference (2000), Big West Conference Tournament Co-MVP (2000)

"Coach Morrill and his staff had us very prepared to compete and get ready for games. All he every wanted from us was to go out and work hard and give it your all, and that is what I'm doing now. Coach Morrill had a great understanding of the players and that we were each our own person and he accepted that."

SHAWN DANIELS, First-Team All-Big West Conference (2000-01), Big West Conference Tournament Co-MVP (2000)
"As far as playing basketball, my time at Utah State was probably the two best years I ever had. It was amazing playing for a coach that had the kind of impact on our lives that Coach Morrill did. He taught us to do the right thing and showed us the right way to play. The way he had us prepared for games was something I never experienced before. Sometimes I look back and wish I was still playing for Coach Morrill. The experience of winning games, playing in two NCAA tournament, winning our tournament championships both years, only losing one home game in two years, and playing with my teammates was the two best years of my life. If there was one thing I had to say I still use today that Coach Morrill taught me it would be preparation. The way he had us prepared for games was something I had never seen before and we knew everything our opponent was going to day. I still try to use that in my life today whether it be in relationships or

Now in its 50th year of existence，the Western Athletic Conference continues to evolve and feature some of the nation＇s best intercollegiate competition．One thing that remains unchanged is the persistent nature of the schools in the WAC to advance their programs to contend at the top levels of the NCAA．

The WAC provides its student－athletes the chance to travel to scenic destinations and gain exposure in some of the nation＇s most diverse mar－ kets．In addition，the WAC＇s student－athletes work to achieve the highest levels of success with the academic support of their respective institutions．

The WAC has experienced tremendous success over the past decade．The WAC has sent a total of 35 teams to bowl games since 2001，including more than half of its teams in 2008 with a record－tying five teams．The conference has sent teams to BCS bowl games in three of the last five seasons includ－ ing Hawai＇i＇s appearance in the 2008 Sugar Bowl． In men＇s basketball，the WAC has sent at least two teams to the NCAA Tournament in 24 of the past 28 seasons．Every current school in the WAC has competed in the NCAA Tournament since 1990. In baseball，the WAC has boasted two national champions since 2003 including Fresno State＇s Col－ lege World Series victory in 2008．In women＇s sports， Fresno State softball has competed in every NCAA Tournament ever held while Louisiana Tech bas－ ketball has played in all but three．In 2009，Hawai＇i made its fourth trip since 2000 to the NCAA Volley－ ball Final Four，and in 2010，the Rainbow Wahine earned a trip to the Softball College World Series．

Current WAC alums have made their presence felt as well．David Carr（Fresno State）was the first player selected in the 2002 NFL Draft．Cheryl Ford （Louisiana Tech）was named the WNBA Rookie of the Year and helped the Detroit Shock win the league＇s championship in 2003．In 2004，the United States＇softball team won the Olympic gold medal with former Fresno State players Laura Berg and Lovie Jung．Jeff Weaver（Fresno State）earned the win in the St．Louis Cardinals＇World Series clinch－ ing victory in 2006．Quarterback Colt Brennan （Hawai＇i）finished third in the 2007 Heisman Trophy voting，and in 2008，Natasha Kai（Hawai i＇）helped the United States to a gold medal in soccer at the Olympics in Beijing．
In 2001，the WAC partnered with ESPN for cov－ erage of football and basketball giving the con－ ference national exposure from one of the most respected broadcast entities in the country．The WAC also officially added WAC．tv in 2006 to give fans streaming internet access to many of its post－ season championships including volleyball，soccer， swimming and diving，basketball，gymnastics，soft－ ball and baseball．

The WAC is the sixth oldest among the nation＇s 11 Division I－A conferences．Its history traces back to July 27，1962，when the original six－team league of Arizona，Arizona State，Brigham Young，New Mexico， Utah and Wyoming began competition．
The first championship was held in November 1962，when Arizona won the men＇s cross country title and New Mexico followed with the first WAC football title．Arizona finished second in the NCAA College World Series and，less than three years later，Arizona State claimed the league＇s first NCAA title when the Sun Devils won the College World Series trophy．Fres－ no State was the last WAC school to earn an NCAA team title when it won the College World Series in 2008.

Since 1962，several changes have occurred．UTEP and Colorado State became members in Septem－ ber 1967，while Arizona and Arizona State withdrew on June 30，1978．The WAC then added San Diego State（1978），Hawai i（1979）and Air Force（1980）． Before 1990，the WAC sponsored championships only in men＇s sports．However，a merger with the High Country Athletic Conference formed a single conference under one administrative structure， and the 1990－91 athletic year was the first in which both men and women competed under the WAC name．Fresno State was added in 1992，and then in 1996，the women＇s programs from Air Force and Hawai＇i along with six new schools（UNLV，Rice，San Jose State，SMU，TCU and Tulsa）came into the WAC． Air Force，Brigham Young，Colorado State，UNLV， New Mexico，San Diego State，Utah and Wyoming withdrew on June 30，1999．Nevada（2000），Boise State（2001）and Louisiana Tech（2001）were added while TCU withdrew following the 2000－01 season． The current membership was established on July 1，2005，when Idaho，New Mexico State and Utah State joined the WAC after Rice，SMU，UTEP and Tulsa withdrew．For the 2012－13 season，the WAC will add Denver，UTSA，Texas State and Seattle to replace withdrawing members Boise State（2011），Fresno State（2012），Hawai＇（2012）and Nevada（2012）．

The WAC has had just five commissioners in its his－ tory．Paul Brechler was named the first leader of the conference and held the position from 1962－1968． He was followed by Wiles Hallock（1968－71），Stan Bates（1971－80），Dr．Joe Kearney（1980－94）and Karl Benson（1994－present）．

Presently，the WAC crowns team and individual champions in 19 sports－eight men＇s and 11 wom－ en＇s．For the men，there are championships in base－ ball，basketball，cross country，football，golf，tennis， indoor track and field and outdoor track and field． Championships for women are held in basketball， cross country，golf，gymnastics，soccer，softball， swimming and diving，tennis，indoor track and field， outdoor track and field and volleyball．

The WAC office has been located in the Denver area since the conference＇s inception with the ex－ ception of a two－year stay in Phoenix from 1964－66．

Mission Accomplished!

Entering the 2010-11 season, Utah State's men's basketball team had just one mission, to win its fourth-straight Western Athletic Conference regular season championship and advance to its third-straight NCAA Tournament. And with four starters, six seniors and eight lettermen returning for the previous year, anything short of another WAC title and NCAA Tournament appearance would have been considered a disappointment.

By season's end, Utah State did not disappoint as it accomplished everything it set out to do and more, steamrolling its way to a school-record tying 30 wins, including a dominating 15-1 performance in conference play as it won its fourth-straight WAC title and advanced to the Big Dance for the third year in a row.

Along the way, Utah State set a school and WAC record by winning 25 straight conference games over a two-year period and produced the third-longest winning streak in school history with 17 straight victories. Utah State also entered the top 25 during the season and was nationally ranked for ninestraight weeks, ending the year No. 25 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' Poll.

Leading the way for Utah State heading into the 2010-11 season was the WAC's Preseason Player of the Year in senior forward Tai Wesley. Along with Wesley, Utah State returned three other proven starters in senior forward Nate Bendall and senior guards Tyler Newbold and Pooh Williams. USU also had an experienced bench returning in senior forward Matt Formisano, senior guard Brian Green, junior forward Brady Jardine and sophomore guard Preston Medlin.

Needless to say, Utah State was everyone's preseason favorite to win the WAC once again in 2010-11 with all its experience and talent returning, and that's just what they did.

Utah State began the 201011 season by winning five of its first seven games, which included in-state victories against Weber State and Utah at home along with a home win against Northeastern, and road wins at Southern Utah and Denver. USU also played two nationally ranked teams on the road during the first month of the season in BYU and Georgetown in the nation's capital.

Following home wins against Long Beach State and Cal State Bakersfield, and a road win at Utah Valley, Utah State won its own World Vision Invitational with victories against Idaho State, Western Michigan and Troy to end its preseason with an 11-2 record.

Utah State began defense of its back-to-back-to-back WAC Championships with home wins against Hawai'i and San Jose State. USU then began the New Year with road wins at Nevada, Boise State and Fresno State, followed by home wins against Louisiana Tech and New Mexico State, and two more road wins at San Jose State and Hawai'i to push its winning streak to 15 straight games heading into the month of February.

With its winning streak, Utah State entered the national polls in January, coming in at No. 25 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' Poll for the week of January 24, marking the third time in the last eight seasons that USU has been nationally ranked.

With plenty of national exposure, Utah State began the month of February just like it ended January as it defeated Nevada and Boise State at home to push its winning streak to 17 straight games, which was tied for the third-longest winning streak in school history. USU also set a school and WAC record in February by winning 25 straight WAC games over a two-year period.

Following its only loss during conference play at Idaho in early February, Utah State responded by winning its final six games of the regular season to run away with the WAC title and became just the seventh team in the 49 -year history of the league to lose one or fewer conference games as it finished with a 15-1 league record.

During the final month of the season, Utah State posted home wins against Fresno State, Montana-Western and Idaho on Senior Night, a convincing road win at No. 23 Saint Mary's in the annual ESPNU BracketBusters, and a pair of league road wins at New Mexico State and Louisiana Tech to conclude the regular season with an impressive 28-3 record.

For the fourth year in a row, Utah State entered the WAC Tournament as the top seed, and for the second time in the last three years, Utah State came away as the tournament champion as it defeated San Jose State (58-54) in the semifinals and Boise State (77-69) in the championship game to advance to its 20th NCAA Tournament alltime, including its eighth in the last 12 years under Moriill.

With a $30-3$ record and No. 17 national ranking in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' Poll, Utah State was given a 12 -seed in the Southeast Region and sent to Tucson, Ariz., to face fifth-seeded Kansas State in the second round, where it lost to the Wildcats, 73-68.

Despite its heartbreaking loss in the NCAA Tournament, the 2010-11 season was one of the most successful campaigns in school history under Morrill as USU advanced to its 12th straight postseason tournament ( 8 -NCAA, 4-NIT) and posted its 12 th straight 23 -win season, extending its current school records in each category.

Tai Wesley earned honorable mention AllAmerica honors from the Associated Press and was named the WAC's Player of the Year during his senior season in 2010-11 after averaging 14.8 points and 8.0 rebounds.

With team success comes individual recognition and Utah State had four players recognized for their accomplishments throughout the course of the season in Wesley, Green and Newbold, along with junior guard Brockeith Pane.

For the 12th straight season, USU had at least one player earn first-team all-conference honors as Wesley and Pane were both named to the WAC's first-team, while Wesley was also named the WAC's Player of the Year marking the sixth time in school history, and the third time in the last four years, that a USU player has received conference player of the year honors. Green was also honored, as he was named second-team all-WAC, while Pane was named to the league's all-newcomer team.

Utah State also had a player named to the WAC's all-defensive team for the second year in a row as Newbold was named to the five-player team.

Wesley finished his senior season ranking first on the team in both scoring (14.8) and rebounding (8.0), and was second in minutes played (29.2). He also ranked second in the conference in field goal shooting (.599), fourth in rebounding, fifth in blocked shots (1.06) and sixth in scoring.

Wesley concluded his career as the only player in school history to record at least 1,000 points, 500 rebounds, 200 assists and 100 blocks. Overall, Wesley ranks eighth alltime at USU in scoring $(1,749)$, tied for first in games played (139), third in games started (128), third in blocked shots (144), third in double-figure scoring games (101), fourth in field goal percentage (.597), fourth in free throw attempts (608), fifth in free throws made (428), fifth in minutes played ( 3,768 ), sixth in rebounding (873), sixth in field goals made (657), eighth in assists (356), ninth in steals (112) and 10th in field goal attempts $(1,102)$.

Pane finished the year ranking second on the team in scoring with 11.8 points per game. He also ranked fourth in the conference in free throw shooting (.802), fifth in assists (3.41) and sixth in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.32).

Green was the team's third-leading scorer at 10.5 points per game, and finished the year leading the WAC in three-point shooting at 46.9 percent and ranking 10th in overall shooting at 48.2 percent.

Along with being named the WAC's Player of the Year, Wesley also earned WAC Player of the Week honors three times during the season. He received his first honor on Dec. 13 after leading USU to home wins against Long Beach State (81-53) and Cal State Bakersfield (77-58), while his second honor was on Jan. 3 after home wins against Hawai'i (74-66) and San Jose State (80-71). His third WAC Player of the Week award came on Feb. 21 as USU defeated MontanaWestern (100-66) at home and No. 23 Saint Mary's (75-65) on the road in its annual ESPNU BracketBuster game.

Two other players received WAC Player of the Week honors during the season as Jardine won the award on Nov. 29 after leading Utah State to home wins against Utah (79-62) and Northeastern (56-54), while Green won his award on Jan. 31 after leading the Aggies to a pair of league road wins at San Jose State (84-65) and at Hawai'i (89-84 2OT).

Utah State also had three players named to the WAC's all-tournament team in Bendall, Pane and Wesley. Pane was named the Most Valuable Player of the tournament as he averaged 17.5 points, while Bendall averaged 10.5 points and 9.0 rebounds, and Wesley averaged 16.5 points and 10.5 rebounds.

For all of his success and accomplishments during the 2010-11 season, Wesley was named an honorable mention AllAmerican by the Associated Press, marking the fourth time in the last five years that USU has had a player garner All-America honors. Wesley also earned all-district honors from both the United States Basketball Writers Association (UWBWA) and the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC).

Once again, opposing teams found out just how hard it is to play at one of the best basketball venues in the West in the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum. Utah State went 17-0 at home for the third time in the last four years and ended the season with the third-longest home winning streak in the nation with 31 straight wins. The 2010-11 season also marked just the sixth time in the 41 -year history of the building that a USU team has gone undefeated at home. That 17-0 record also marked the 15th straight year in which USU teams have lost two or fewer home games. USU also led the WAC in attendance in 2011 averaging 8,732 fans per game, including two sellouts during the season.

As for Coach Morrill, the 2010-11 season marked the sixth time in his 25 years as a collegiate head coach that he was named conference coach of the year, including his fifth time in his 13 years at USU as he has now been named the WAC Coach of the Year in each of the past three seasons. Morrill was also named the NABC District 6 Coach of the Year for the second year in a row and the 2011 Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year by CollegeInsider.com.

With a school-record tying 30 wins in 2011, Morrill has now won at least 20 games 16 times in his career and at least 17 games 22 times. In his 13 years at USU, he has posted an amazing 324-103 (.759) record, including a 167-49 (.773) league mark, and a 25-7 (.781) record in conference tournaments.

Overall, Utah State finished the 2010-11

Brockeith Pane earned first-team all-WAC honors as he averaged 11.8 points and 3.4 assists during his junior year. He was also named the MVP of the 2011 WAC Tournament.

Those who are great don't have an offseason.

Greatness is achieved through hours in the weight room and on the court.

Greatness is never settling for the status quo and going beyond what is expected of you.

Greatness is the standard of excellence we have set for our schools, for our student-athletes, and for ourselves.

Stan L. Albrecht was named Utah State University's 15th president and assumed his new position on Feb. 1, 2005.

At the time of the announcement, Albrecht was serving as executive vice president and provost at Utah State, a position he held since 2001. He previously served as its dean of the College of Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences from 1998-2001.

Albrecht's had may successes during his tenure as president. Under his leadership, the university launched a comprehensive fundraising campaign that has, so far, raised $$ 314$ million of its $$ 400$ million goal.

A significant happening during the past months occurred when the College of Eastern Utah officially became part of the Utah State University system. This historic union increases USU's reach in southeastern Utah from Price to Blanding.
"I take great pride in USU's statewide education role," said AIbrecht. "Having the College of Eastern Utah join us, along with the tremendous growth of our regional campuses in the Uintah Basin, Tooele and Brigham City, assures more Utah students the chance of pursuing a high-quality, higher education.
"In another historic first, our university now has a strong presence in Park City. As part of the largest private gift in USU's history, we acquired the Swaner Preserve and EcoCenter. The site consists of a 1,200-acre land trust and a 10,000 square-foot, state-of-the-art facility dedicated to environmental education. This addition advances USU's statewide scientific, education and outreach mission in the Park City area, of one of the state's fastest-growing areas."

Exciting happenings continue on the Logan campus as well. On the east side of the university's historic Quad, construction is underway on a new College of Agriculture building, a center for 21 st century agriculture research and teaching. Also under construction is a state of-the-art interdisciplinary research and development facility at our Innovation Campus that will house USTAR research teams pursuing advanced nutrition, veterinary diagnostics and life science efforts. The Emma Eccles Jones Early Childhood Education and Research Center and the Dolores Doré Eccles Center for Early Care and Education is now open and was dedicated in spring 2011.

SCOTT BARNES

Athletics Director

Since assuming the duties of Director of Intercollegiate Athletics at Utah State University on April 1，2008，Scott Barnes has worked tirelessly to improve the landscape of Aggie Athletics and has cast a vision that includes progress toward meeting many intercollegiate athletic priorities．And despite the instability within the American economy since his arrival at USU，Barnes＇list of accomplishments has generated a newfound hope and excitement for Utah State Athletics．

During his tenure，Barnes has successfully negotiated several new initiatives and has created a new intercollegiate athletics－funding plan that has generated a significant increase in annual operating revenues since his arrival．

Among Barnes＇many accomplishments thus far at Utah State in－ clude a new student－fee referendum that will annually generate \＄2．1 million for Aggie Athletics．He has also overhauled USU＇s development operations which led to substantial increases in Big Blue Scholarship Fund membership and major gift fund－raising．

Another priority for Barnes during his first year on the job was im－ proving the overall look of the football program．Plenty of progress has already been made in this area as Barnes conducted a very successful football coaching search that resulted in the hiring of Gary Andersen， and has already raised over \＄2 million toward a goal of $$ 2.5$ million to improve the football program through the creation of a Competitive Excellence Plan that calls for a new scheduling philosophy，increased operational support and further facilities developments．

As for facilities，Utah State continues to see constant improve－ ment under Barnes with the completion of the new Jim \＆Carol Laub Athletics－Academics Complex and the Aggie Sports Hall of Honor in 2009．The new state－of－the－art off－court facilities complex within the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum was completed in the fall of 2009 as well． These enhancements include new locker rooms and lounge areas for men＇s and women＇s basketball，a new film room for women＇s bas－ ketball and volleyball and a new athletic training room．USU＇s most recent facility upgrade was done in 2011 with the installation of a new synthetic turf to the Stan Laub Indoor Training Center．

Along with upgrades to facilities and increased revenue under Barnes，Utah State also flourished athletically during the 2010－11 aca－ demic year as it claimed Western Athletic Conference team cham－ pionships in women＇s soccer，men＇s basketball and men＇s indoor and outdoor track and field．Overall，USU has won 13 WAC Championships in the past three years under Barnes．

During the 2010－1 season，Utah State＇s men＇s basketball program won 30 games，claimed its fourth－straight WAC Championship and advanced to its 20th NCAA Tournament in school history．USU＇s track and field programs continued to dominate the WAC as men＇s indoor track won its third WAC title in the last fours years，men＇s outdoor track won its fourth WAC Championship in the last five years，and women＇s soccer won its second WAC Championship in the past three years．
