A TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

- Since 2000, Utah State has won seven regular season conference championships and six tournament championships.
- Utah State has advanced to 13 postseason appearances during the same span, and recorded a school-record streak of 13-straight seasons that ended during the 2012-13 campaign. The Aggies' 13-year postseason streak consisted of going to the NCAA Tournament in 2000, 2001, 2003, 2005, 2006, 2009, 2010 and 2011, to the National Invitation Tournament in 2002, 2004, 2007 and 2008, and the CollegeInsiders.com Tournament in 2012.
- Since 2000, Utah State has gone 28-12 (.700) in conference postseason tournaments and has advanced to the championship game 10 times.
- Utah State's 30 wins during the 2010-11 season are tied with the 2008-09 team for most in school history and its 30-4 record is the best-ever at USU. Utah State also won 25-straight Western Athletic Conference games during the 2009-10 and 2010-11 seasons, to set a school and league record.
- Utah State departed the Western Athletic Conference in 2012-13 for the Mountain West after eight years in the WAC, in which the Aggies won four-straight WAC regular-season championships from 2008-11, which is the longest streak in school history. The previous record for consecutive conference titles was two during the 1935-36 seasons in the Rocky Mountain Athletics Conference and the 1997-98 seasons in the Big West Conference. The four WAC titles also ties a school record for most conference championships won as USU won four Rocky Mountain Conference Championships from 1917-36.
- Utah State finished the 2010-11 season ranked No. 25 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' Poll, marking the first time since 1978 that USU has been nationally ranked at the end of the season. It is also just the eighth time in school history that USU has finished the season nationally ranked. USU was ranked for nine-straight weeks to end the 2010-11 year, which is its longest streak since the 1970-71 team was ranked for 11-straight weeks. Overall, it was the third time in the previous eight years that USU has been nationally ranked.
- The Aggies won 21-plus games from 2000-2013, which is a school record, bettering the old mark of three straight 20-win seasons from 1962-64.
- From 2000-2016, Utah State has gone 403-158 overall, for a winning percentage of 71.8 percent, 10th-best in the country.
- Over the past 17 years, Utah State has had five All-American selections, 20 first-team all-conference selections, 34 all-conference selections (first and second team) and 48 conference player of the week honorees.
- The 1999-2000 team set a then-school record with 28 wins and went a perfect 19-0 in the Big West Conference, marking only the third time in league history a team has gone undefeated.
- The 2000-01 team tied the school record for wins at the time (28) and recorded Utah State's first NCAA Tournament win in 31 years with a 77-68 overtime victory against Ohio State.
- The 2014-15 team recorded 11 wins in Mountain West play, the most by any second-year program in conference history.

Utah State has had just one losing season at home in nearly half a century of play in the Spectrum. The Aggies have compiled a 552-131 (.808) record in 46 years, including a perfect 14-0 mark in 1973-74, 15-0 records in 1997-98 and 2000-01, and 17-0 records in 2007-08, 2008-09 and 2010-11. Utah State posted a 10-6 record in the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum last season, marking the Aggies' 23rd-straight season with double-digit home victories. Since 2000, Utah State has posted a 119-24 (.832) record against league opponents and has won 245 of its last 281 games (.872) against all competition in the Spectrum.

Large crowds are another characteristic of the arena, as the Aggies have averaged better than 7,000 fans per game in 42 of their 46 seasons in the Spectrum. USU brought in more than 140,000 spectators last year, and over five million fans have attended Aggie basketball games in the Spectrum. A school-record 184,932 fans attended home games during the 2011-12 season, while 141,989 fans attended home games during the 2015-16 season, marking the 22nd-straight year that Utah State has drawn more than 100,000 fans.

The impressive facility has helped bring various postseason events to Logan, including first-round National Invitation Tournament games in 1984, 1996, 2002 and 2004. In addition, the Spectrum played host to a 1971 NCAA Tournament game.

The Aggie gymnastics and women's basketball teams call the Spectrum home, as well. The Spectrum was the site of the 1983, 1993 and 1999 NCAA Midwest Region Gymnastics Championships, and hosted the 2000 Big West Gymnastics Championships, the 2002 Western Gymnastics Championships, the 2005 and 2012 WAC Championships and will host the 2017 MRGC Championships. In addition to sporting events, the Spectrum is utilized for concerts, graduation, the Festival of the American West and other special events.

The Smith Spectrum was dedicated on Dec. 1, 1970, prior to a 95-89 victory against Ohio State. Over the past 10 years, the Spectrum has taken on a new look as a new state-of-the-art scoreboard, sound system and additional lights were installed prior to the 2002 season, to go along with new scorer's tables that were added prior to the 2001 season. In the summer of 2009, renovations to the existing men's and women's basketball locker rooms were made, along with the creation of a new student-athlete lounge and study area. Dressing rooms for four teams are available. The playing floor, which was replaced in the summer of 2004, is permanent and constructed of maple hardwood on a cushion, over concrete. In the summer of 2012, a new updated state-of-the-art video board, scoreboard and scorers tables were installed, along with the resurfacing of the playing floor with the new logo, and in the summer of 2015 the court was again resurfaced and re-painted with a larger U-State logo at center court.

The arena is named for Brigham City native Dee Glen Smith, who built one of America's largest grocery store chains and was a substantial supporter of Utah State University. Smith died in 1984.

SPECTRUM MAGIC

Utah State teams were nicknamed "Big Blue" (pictured above) by The Logan Herald Journal as early as 1916, an apparent reference to the Blue Ox of Paul Bunyan lore.

GREAT FAN SUPPORT

Last year, an average of just under 9,000 fans packed the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum for every contest to watch their Aggies win double-digit home games for the 22nd-straight season. Utah State ranked fourth in the Mountain West in attendance with more than 141,000 people in attendance during the season.

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

Playing in the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum is definitely an advantage for the Aggies. Since 2000, Utah State teams have won just under 90 percent of their home games (245-36). The Aggies have a 552-131 (.808) all-time record in the facility.

Utah State has gone unbeaten six times in the Spectrum's 45-year history.

The Aggies have won 246 of their last 281 games (.875) in the Spectrum, dating back to the 2000 season, including 119 of their last 143 (.832) home games against league competition over the same span.

Utah State had a school-record streak of 37 straight victories in the Spectrum, spanning the 2007-08 to 2011-12 seasons. Overall, USU has had a winning record at home for 34 consecutive seasons.

During the 2016-17 season, Utah State will play 17 games in the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum. Home game highlights include match-ups with the Missouri Valley's Indiana State and in-state opponent Weber State, as well as Mountain West contests against Boise State, New Mexico, UNLV, Colorado State, Fresno State, Nevada, Wyoming, San Diego State and Air Force.

Utah State's fans were recently recognized by bleacherreport.com as the only honorable mention selection to its top five best college fanbases behind Kansas, Indiana, Kentucky, Duke and Syracuse.

Since 2000, Utah State has had better than an 80 percent graduation rate. The senior class each of the last three years has gone on to graduate, including 2015-16 seniors Trace Cureton, Darius Perkins and Chris Smith. The lone Utah State senior from 2012-13 academic year graduated, as did all three of the seniors from the 2011-12 season, as well as all six seniors from the 2010-11 season, along with its lone senior during the 2009 and 2010 seasons.

BASKETBALL FACILITIES AND SUPPORT

During the summer of 2009, Utah State's locker room was completely remodeled as new state-of-the-art lockers were installed. A student-ath-lete lounge was also created within the locker room that has three flat-screen high-definition televisions equipped with Wii and XBox capabilities. A full-size refrigerator that is stocked daily with weight-gaining supplements is also located within the lounge, along with leather couches and a wireless work-station with computers. A cold pool was also installed inside the locker room to help enhance players' muscle recovery.

Completed in June, 2013, Utah State's $6.5 million, 26,329 square-foot ICON Sports Performance Center features areas for weight training, cardiovascular workouts and speed and agility training, as well as offices for staff. Built on existing university property at the northwest corner of Maverik Stadium, the state-of-the-art multi-level facility alleviated overcrowding in the previous 5,800 square-foot strength and conditioning center and accommodates almost 400 student-athletes from 16 sports programs.

The ICON Sports Performance Center is the largest such facility in the Mountain West and rivals any strength and conditioning complex in the country. Of the schools Utah State competes against in the MW, Fresno State currently has the second-largest strength and conditioning center(s) at 12,500 square feet, followed by Air Force (12,000 sq. ft.), Boise State (12,000 sq. ft.), Wyoming (11,100 sq. ft.), Hawai'i (10,000 sq. ft.), New Mexico (10,000 sq. ft.), Colorado State (10,000 sq. ft.), San José State (10,000 sq. ft.), UNLV (8,200 sq. ft.) and Nevada (8,000 sq. ft.).

The Wayne Estes Center is a $9.5 million, 32,000 square-foot basketball practice facility and volleyball competition venue that opened in April, 2014. The facility contains a regulation size competition court with chair back seating for 1,400 fans, along with a training room and in-season strength and conditioning area. Office space for both men's and women's basketball and volleyball is included in the new facility, as well as a locker room and film room for volleyball. Ticketing and concession services are available on game days. Located inside the foyer of the Wayne Estes Center is a visual tribute of the building's namesake.

The facility was made possible following a lead gift of $5.25 million from Jim and Carol Laub (the largest single gift in the history of Aggie Athletics) and a $1.3 million gift from Blake Kirby. All funding for this new facility came from private donations.

LAUB ATHLETICS-ACADEMIC COMPLEX

The Dale Mildenberger Sports Medicine Complex and the Dr. John Worley Sports Medicine Research Center is one of the finest in the nation with over 11,000 square feet to provide maximum service to Utah State's 16 intercollegiate sports and 375-plus student-athletes. Among the many amenities are 24 treatment tables, a 2,000 square foot physical therapy and rehabilitation center, and three hydroworx therapy pools for non-weight or partial weight-bearing rehabilitation to enhance recovery. The Sports Medicine Complex also houses office space for four full-time staff members and 12 graduate assistants, a team physician examination room and physical therapy office.

With the addition of the new facilities and the continued cooperation between Utah State Athletics, Intermountain HealthCare and HPER/Exercise Science, Utah State University is becoming one of the foremost sports medicine research institutions in the intermountain west.

LAUB ATHLETICS-ACADEMIC COMPLEX

The third floor of the Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex houses the academic center for student-athletes. This center consists of a 24-unit computer center, a spacious study center, and several individual one-on-one tutor rooms. Additionally, there are three smaller classrooms that can be used for group study sessions, group tutoring, tutor meetings, and general meeting and study needs. Two of the classrooms can be opened to create one larger classroom. All classrooms have television monitors installed and have data connectivity for PowerPoint, Internet and other useful presentations. The study center is completely wireless for student-athletes to connect to the Internet anywhere in the facility, but also has sub-floor electrical and data connections throughout. The student-athlete services staff are also housed within the academic center.

Student-Athlete Services is designed to assist student-athletes with academic, vocational and social development. Dr. Brian Evans and his staff provide services including study sessions, tutoring, registration, academic advising and career counseling.

MEDIA EXPOSURE

Head coach Tim Duryea addresses the media at his introductory press conference on March 30, 2015.

Pooh Williams, Brockeith Pane, Tyler Newbold, Nate Bendall and Tai Wesley visit with the national media at the 2011 NCAA Tournament.

Located just 90 miles from Salt Lake City, Utah State falls into the 33rd largest media market in the country. Attention is received from the state's largest newspapers, television stations and radio stations.

This season, USU men's basketball will have 16 games on national television, including seven on the ESPN Family of Networks and four on CBS Sports Network (CBSSN). The Aggies will also have four games televised on ROOT Sports Network and one via Campus Insiders. USU men's basketball will additionally have games streamed on the Internet through the Mountain West Digital Network.

All USU basketball games, home and away, are broadcast on the USU radio network, as well as on the Internet through USU's web page at www.UtahStateAggies.com. Al Lewis, "The Voice of the Aggies," hosts a weekly coach's show with USU head coach Tim Duryea.

Utah State's web page allows media and fans all around the country and around the world to follow Aggie athletics. Updated on a daily basis, the website provides radio broadcasts of games, information on the team and features on the players.

HAIL THE UTAH AGGIES

Hail the Utah Aggies,
we'll play the game with all our might.
See the colors flying,

How they stir us onward;
we'll win the victory alright.
Hail the Utah Aggies;

Utah State, Hey! Aggies all the way! Go Aggies! Go Aggies! Hey! Hey! Hey!

LOGAN AND CACHE VALLEY

With a population of 101,811, nearly 50,000 of whom live in Logan, Cache County is a growing area 90 miles north of Salt Lake City. The Cache Valley itself is 60 miles long and 15 miles wide and experiences each of the four seasons.

The Cache Valley, a fertile green valley with lakes and streams, is surrounded by the Wellsville Mountains on the west and the Bear River Range on the east. Just east of Logan is the Wasatch-Cache National Forest, accessed by Logan Canyon Scenic Byway (Hwy. 89). Logan Canyon is filled with geological wonders, including vertical rock formations, caves and wind tunnels. Thirty minutes from Logan, Beaver Mountain Ski Resort is a popular winter getaway. Fifteen minutes beyond Beaver Mountain, the summit of Logan Canyon is a breathtaking view of turquoise-colored Bear Lake.

2016-17 SEASON OUTLOOK

Utah State will enter the 2016-17 season with an overhauled roster featuring just four returning letterwinners, but with improved athleticism, albeit untested, at every position.

Headlining the group of returners is senior wing Jalen Moore, who has led the team in scoring and rebounding each of the past two seasons. Moore became the 37th player in school history to eclipse 1,000 career points, ending the 2015-16 campaign with 1,119 after averaging 15.2 points per game.

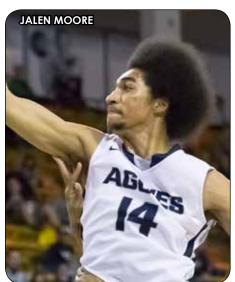

In addition to his scoring, Moore earned the Chairman of the Boards Award after leading the Aggies with 6.0 rebounds per game.

Moore is slated to play the three throughout the year for Utah State, a move that second-year head coach Tim Duryea said will only help the senior in the future.

"Our goal this year is to play Jalen at his natural position, which is the three," Duryea said. "I expect him to excel in all phases of the game, from rebounding the ball, to scoring and his shooting percentages. I see him improving in all of those things, playing at a position where his future is as a basket-ball player."

Senior guard Shane Rector returns and will direct the Aggies at the point, having excelled in a pair of starts at the Mountain West Tournament at the end of the last season, averaging 17.5 points, 5.0 rebounds and 4.5 assists over the two-game stretch.

"Shane is coming into this year as the incumbent at the point and played very well in the tournament against Wyoming and San Diego State," Duryea said. "Shane has a clear mind going forward, in terms of what he needs to do at this level and what I would like him to do to run our team."

Julion Pearre is another guard with a wealth of experience, having played in every game with the Aggies since his arrival in Logan. Pearre wrapped up the 2015-16 season with four straight double-digit scoring outings and finished the year averaging 8.0 points per game.

"Julion is a battle-tested, two-year guy that has played as many minutes as anyone in the program over the last two years," Duryea said. "He is an extremely tough, aggressive kid and I love his mentality on the floor. He never backs down and he never takes his foot off the pedal."

The final returner for the Aggies is sophomore forward Quinn Taylor, who played in all but one game last season after completing a two-year LDS Church Mission in Sao Paulo, Brazil. Taylor entered the year as a walk-on, but earned a scholarship following his determined play on the court, averaging 4.2 points and 3.7 rebounds per game.

"Quinn has done a good job for us," Duryea said. "Things just turn out well when he's on the floor. He is a great execution guy."

In addition to the four returners, the Aggies bring in 10 newcomers and a group that is being regarded as one of the top recruiting classes ever at Utah State.

Headlining the group is four-star recruit Koby McEwen, a 6-4 guard from Wasatch Academy (Utah), who led the Tigers to a 29-4 record as a senior, averaging 18.7 points, 4.6 rebounds and 5.4 assists per game.

"Koby's versatility allows him to play the one or two," Duryea said. "He has the size and shooting ability to play the two and has tremendous instincts in passing the ball that allows him to play the one."

Joining him on the guard line is Sam Merrill, returning from an LDS Church Mission in Nicaragua. Merrill, a 6-4 guard, led Bountiful (Utah) High School to a state championship as a senior, scoring 23 points in the championship game. Over the course of his prep career, Merrill was named first-team all-state as a junior and senior, as well as the Region 6 MVP as a junior.

"Sam is a kid that will make up a lot of ground in a hurry." Duryea said. "He is a very efficient basket-ball player because he figures out his strengths and plays to them and figures out his weaknesses and stays away from them. He has a thorough grasp on who he is as a player and that will really allow him to advance."

Portuguese international Diogo Brito will join the team fresh off an appearance with Portugal in the U-20 FIBA World Championships, leading the team with 10.8 points per game.

Daron Henson (W, 6-7, 210, Fr.) Sam Merrill (G, 6-4, 195, Fr.) Klay Stall (F, 6-9, 235, Fr.) Koby McEwen (G, 6-4, 195, Fr.)

"Diogo has an extremely high offensive intellect," Duryea said. "European kids are very high level offensive players because they are trained at an early age about the intricacies of the pick-and-roll game. They practice with professional teams and older players and are exposed to a lot of experience in practice and those they play against. Diogo's adjustment will be how fast he can adjust on the defensive end of the floor."

The last addition to the guards is Abel Porter, also returning from an LDS Church Mission, who was an all-state performer at Davis (Utah) High School.

"Abel was a very productive player at Davis High School," Duryea said. "He is a point guard that takes a lot of pride in running and organizing a team. His strength is making the players around him better."

Along with a talented group of guards, Utah State added four post players that are all 6-foot-8 or taller.

Tallest among the group is Snow College transfer Norbert Janicek, measuring in at 6-11. Janicek will have three years to play for the Aggies after earning first-team all-Scenic West Athletic Conference honors and leading the Badgers with 15.6 points and 6.2 rebounds per game.

"Norbert is a very gifted low-post scorer around the basket with both hands and an extremely hard worker," Duryea said. "With three years to play, all of his best basketball is in front of him. He's really just getting started in figuring out how good he can be."

Another transfer, Ngor Barnaba from Missouri State West Plains, will bolster the bigs, standing at 6-foot-8. Barnaba led the Grizzlies in scoring and rebounding last season, turning in 14.7 points and 7.5 rebounds per game.

"Ngor has the ability to stretch the floor from the four or five spot," Duryea said. "When you want to play small, you can play Ngor at the five and he'll give you a more 5-out look on the floor. It will give the defense some problems with five shooters on the floor."

Klay Stall will be the youngest of the post players in both age and development, after missing his senior year at Basha (Ariz.) High School because of a knee injury. As a junior, Stall averaged a double-double of 11.8 points and 11.4 rebounds per game en route to being named honorable mention all-Arizona Division I.

"Klay is our most athletic big," Duryea said. "He is extremely bouncy, but he needs to develop his body as he missed his whole senior year in his development. Physically, he is younger than most of the group and he is younger in terms of basketball because of the missed year, but has a tremendous upside because of his athletic ability."

Rounding out the bigs is freshman walk-on Trevin Dorius, a 6-11 post out of Wasatch (Utah) High School, where he averaged 9.3 points and 7.9 rebounds per game.

"Trevin is a five-man that we're looking to develop," Duryea said. "We'll let him go at his own pace to begin with to develop the skill and strength to be successful at this level."

On the wings, Utah State returns redshirt Alexis Dargenton and adds freshman Daron Henson. In addition, fifth-year senior Connor Garner will walk on after serving as a team manager and member of the scout team over the past three years.

Dargenton sat out the 2015-16 season after transferring from Laramie County Community College, where he averaged 12.4 points and a teambest 7.7 rebounds per game.

"Alexis is a kid who has spent a year in our program and his best attribute is his activity level and motor as a player," Duryea said. "He can block a shot on one end and then get an offensive rebound tip-in on the other end. He is a very active player."

Henson played his final year of high school at Cathedral (Calif.) High School in Los Angeles, after a three-year career at Alemany (Calif.) High School, scoring in double digits as both a junior and sophomore.

"Daron may be the best pure shooter in our program," Duryea said. "He is a long, athletic wing, who is developing as a ball handler and passer to be more of a total offensive player. He is exceptionally gifted at shooting the basketball."

Garner earned a walk-on spot after working with the scout team as a manager over the past three seasons.

"Connor is a deceiving athlete in terms of his strength and explosiveness," Duryea said. "Connor knows the program like the back of his hand, in terms of expectations, and the patience that he'll need to have as a fifth-year walk-on and first year in uniform. Connor is a classic grinder. He is going to come every day and put extra work in. He'll know what we are doing and will never be unprepared. That will give him a chance, should it arrive, to succeed."

The Aggies were one of six Mountain West schools that captured victories in the 2015-16 installment of the MW/MVC Challenge, posting a 69-68 win on the road at Missouri State.

The Aggies then host their second non-Division I game on Tuesday, Dec. 6, facing Great Falls, an NAIA school from Great Falls, Mont. Utah State then takes its first road trip of December to face its second in-state opponent, Utah Valley, on Saturday, Dec. 10, and will enter the game having won all 11 meetings between the two schools.

The homestand also includes games against New Mexico on Wednesday, Jan. 4, and UNLV on Saturday, Jan. 7.

TIM DURYEA HEAD COACH 16-15, SECOND SEASON, 16TH OVERALL North Texas, 1988

Head coach Tim Duryea (pronounced Dur-yea) will begin his second season at the helm of Utah State men's basketball in 2016-17 after compiling the third-best start in USU history, when he led the Aggies to 16 wins in his first season in 2015-16. Prior to being promoted to the head job, Duryea was an assistant coach for the Aggies for 14 seasons. Duryea had been the longest tenured assistant coach in program history before taking over in April of 2015 and becoming the 18th head coach for USU men's basketball.

During his inaugural season, Duryea mentored junior wing Jalen Moore and senior guard Chris Smith to third-team all-Mountain West honors and became the first coach in USU history to win a conference tournament game in their first season. In addition, Utah State led the Mountain West in 3-point field goal percentage, shooting a league-best 37.0 percent (257-of-695).

In his 15 seasons at Utah State, Duryea has been part of an Aggie program that has averaged 23.1 wins per season, advanced to the NCAA Tournament six times (2003, 2005, 2006, 2009, 2010, 2011), and won five conference championships in the Big West (2003) and Western Athletic Conferences (2008, 2009, 2010, 2011), while winning four conference tournament titles in the Big West (2003, 2005) and WAC (2009, 2011).

In seven seasons leading up to his appointment as head coach, Duryea was in charge of an Aggie offense that traditionally was one of the best in the nation. The trend continued as head coach, with Utah State leading the Mountain West in 3-point field goal percentage (.370) and finishing third in the league in overall field goal percentage (.451). In 2014-15, Utah State led the Mountain West and ranked No. 14 nationally in 3-point shooting (.394), while also ranking second in the conference and No. 17 in the nation in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.38), and second in the conference and No. 19 nationally in fewest turnovers per game (10.4). Individually, USU had the best field goal shooter in the Mountain West in redshirt freshman forward David Collette, who was No. 14 in the nation at 59.1 percent (163-of-276).

In 2013-14, Utah State ranked second in the nation in 3-point field goal percentage (.406), as well as No. 12 in assists per game (15.9) and No. 19 in assist-to-ratio (1.44). During the 2011-12 and 2012-13 seasons, USU ranked No. 24 nationally in field goal percentage at 47.5 and 46.9 percent, respectively, while ranking No. 28 nationally in field goal percentage (.470) during the 2010-11 campaign.

During the 2009-10 season, Utah State ranked third nationally in 3-point field goal percentage (.414), ninth in overall shooting (.488) and No. 10 in free throw shooting (.758), and was the only team in the nation to rank among the top-10 in all three shooting categories. During the 2008-09 season, USU finished the year as the nation's best shooting team (.496) and ranked No. 17 in 3-point field goal percentage (.394).

Duryea spent his first seven seasons at Utah State in charge of an Aggie defense that traditionally ranked among the top in the nation in points allowed, including No. 4 in 2002 (58.1), No. 8 in 2005 (57.8) and No. 9 in 2003 (60.0).

During his time as an assistant at Utah State, the Aggies recorded a dozen 20-win seasons, including setting the school record for wins with a 30-5 mark during the 2008-09 season and a 30-4 mark during the 2010-11 campaign. USU also had 18 players earn a total of 30 all-conference honors during the past 14 years, including three WAC Players of the Year in Jaycee Carroll (2008), Gary Wilkinson (2009) and Tai Wesley (2011). Furthermore, USU had three players earn All-American citations a total of four times with Duryea on staff in Carroll (2007, 2008), Wilkinson (2009) and Wesley (2011).

Along with his on-the-court responsibilities, Duryea also oversaw academic progress as an assistant at Utah State, which resulted in 22 Aggies earning academic all-conference honors a total of 40 times over the last 14 years, while nearly 90 percent of USU's players during that time graduated.

Prior to joining the Aggies, Duryea was the head coach at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College from 2000-01. During his two years at the helm, his teams produced a 40-25 record and back-to-back trips to the Region Six Championships.

A 1988 graduate of North Texas, Duryea began his coaching career in 1988 at Colorado State before moving on to North Texas in 1993. Duryea then went to Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College as an assistant coach for two seasons before becoming the head coach there prior to the 1999-2000 season.

Duryea played basketball at Denton (Texas) High School and Texas Pan-American before transferring to North Texas. At UNT, Duryea was a co-captain in 1988 for one of only three teams in school history to advance to the NCAA Tournament.

Duryea and his wife Angie have 21-year-old twins, Tanner (son) and Taylor (daughter), and a 14-year-old daughter (Kaylee). Tanner is a junior at Utah State, while Taylor is a sophomore volleyball player at Dixie State (Utah).

TARVISH FELTON ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH NINTH YEAR

Southern Utah, 1999

Tarvish Felton (pronounced Tarvis) is entering his ninth season on the Utah State staff and first as associate head coach in 2016-17. Felton joined the staff in June, 2008, and his primary emphasis is on offense, post-man development, recruiting, academics, opposing team scouts, game preparation, player development and scheduling.

Utah State improved dramatically on the boards in 2015-16, averaging more than four rebounds per game (35.7) than the previous year (31.5) and out rebounding opponents overall, 35.7 to 34.5.

Under Felton's tutelage in 2013-14, Utah State led the Mountain West and ranked 18th in the NCAA in rebound margin (+5.8). Individually, Jarred Shaw was 35th in defensive rebounds per game (6.33) and 73rd in overall rebounds per game (8.3), along with eighth in the Mountain West in rebounding (8.3). Shaw earned honorable mention all-Mountain West honors in 2013-14, and appeared on the Charlotte Hornets Summer League roster in 2014.

In 2012-13, USU led the Western Athletic Conference and ranked third in the NCAA in rebounding margin (+9.1), while also leading the conference in rebounding defense (28.4 rpg).

Prior to joining the Utah State staff, Felton spent the 2007-08 season as an assistant at Sacramento State. In all, Felton brought nine years of coaching experience with him to Utah State and had coached 11 players who earned all-conference honors.

Felton began his coaching career as an assistant at Southern Utah during the 1999-2000 season, before spending two years at Cal State Los Angeles. He then spent the 2002-03 academic year starting the Texas A&M-International program and served as its head coach for three seasons, followed by another one-year stint as an assistant at Southern Utah before moving on to Sacramento State.

A 1999 graduate of Southern Utah with a bachelor's degree in physical education, Felton was a two-time IHC Health Plans state player of the year as a junior and senior. At the conclusion of the 1999 season, he received all-Mid-Continent Conference honors and was named Southern Utah's Male Athlete of the Year, Men's Basketball Academic Athlete of the Year and team MVP. All-time, Felton ranks fourth in Southern Utah history in blocked shots (68), fifth in steals (139) and seventh in rebounding (505), leading SUU in rebounding in 1998 with 7.6 rebounds per game.

Felton, who is a native of Perry, Ga., played his freshman season at Northeast College in Norfolk, Neb.

Felton married USU Deputy Athletics Director Jana Doggett in May, 2011, and the couple has a 17-year old daughter, DeAubrey Ann Bowers, and a 2-year-old son, Deekan G. Felton.

LOUIS WILSON ASSISTANT COACH SECOND YEAR

William Jewell, 1992

Louis Wilson will begin his second season as an assistant with Utah State after joining the staff in May, 2015. Wilson joined the Aggies by way of Adams State, where he had served as head coach since 2010. Wilson is responsible for coordinating defense, guards, recruiting, opposing team scouts and game preparation.

Wilson helped the guards to flourish in 2015-16 as seniors Chris Smith and Darius Perkins wrapped up their careers as two of the top 3-point shooters in Utah State history. Smith finished his career No. 3 (.451) all-time behind the 3-point line, while Perkins finished No. 9 (.414).

At Adams State, Wilson led the Grizzlies to a pair of 20-win seasons and finished his tenure as the winningest coach in school history by winning percentage (.674). Wilson's teams advanced to three NCAA D-II National Tournaments in five years and ranked as high as No. 11 in the nation. Wilson's squads were also fundamentally sound as they led the nation in steals (12.7 spg) and turnovers (21.5 tpg) in 2011-12 and finished among the top-20 in the nation in scoring every year as his teams scored 80.0, 80.6, 78.4, 89.4 and 87.4 points per game during his five years.

Under Wilson, Adams State posted victories over ranked opponents every year and also captured a road win at Utah in 2011. Adams State was also strong at home under Wilson, winning 80 percent of its games with a 56-15 mark in Alamosa, Colo. In all, Wilson finished his career at Adams State with an overall record of 95-46, coaching 13 all-conference athletes.

Prior to Adams State, Wilson was the associate head coach at CS Northridge, helping the Matadors to back-to-back Big West Conference Championships in 2008 and 2009. CSUN also captured a Big West Tournament Championship in 2009, earning a 15th seed to the NCAA Tournament.

Wilson began his coaching career as an assistant at Idaho State (1998-2006) and Southern Utah (1992-98), helping the Bengals to a Big Sky runner-up finish in 2004 and guiding the Thunderbirds to an American West Conference Championship in 1995.

Wilson played collegiately at William Jewell and was inducted in the WJC Hall of the Fame as a member of the 1987-88 team that finished with a 32-2 record.

Wilson is married to Andrea Wilson of Idaho Falls, and the couple has four children: Jacques Wilson, Kaden Wampler, Keawe Wilson and Kalea Wilson.

COACH DURYEA ON COACH WILSON

"Simply put, Louis is a winner. He is exceptional in all areas of our profession, and his ability to relate with recruits, their families, and his own players are outstanding. Louis is a national, as well as an international recruiter, and he also excels in the area of player development, which will be a huge emphasis with our program. Louis is a dedicated husband and father and loves the Cache Valley area."

SPENCER NELSON ASSISTANT COACH FIRST YEAR

Utah State, 2004

Utah State Hall of Famer and alum Spencer Nelson will begin his first season as an assistant coach after being named to the staff by head coach Tim Duryea in August of 2016. Nelson will be responsible for opponent scouting, post-man development, recruiting and an emphasis on rebounding.

Nelson, a fan favorite in Logan, was named a Mid-Major All-American and the Mid-Major Player of the Year as a senior in 2005, as he was the only player in the nation to average at least 15.0 points, 7.0 rebounds and 4.0 assists per game. Over the course of his career, Nelson peppered his name in the Utah State record book, finishing among the top 20 in 10 career statistics. Additionally, Nelson owns three of the top 10 single-season field goal percentage records, shooting 65.3 percent as a senior in 2005 to rank fourth all-time, and 60.0 percent as both a sophomore and junior to rank tied for ninth all-time in the USU history books.

During his final three years at Utah State, Nelson helped the Aggies to a 73-21 (.777) mark, including a 42-12 (.778) ledger in the Big West as USU shared the regular season championship in 2004 and won Big West tournament titles and advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2003 and 2005. Nelson was also a three-time academic all-Big West honoree and one of the 16 Aggie greats named to the USU All-Century basketball team in 2005.

Nelson went on and played professional basketball overseas for 10 years, competing in Germany, Italy, Greece and Spain. He retired in 2015 and has spent the last year working in private equity with the Cicero Group in Salt Lake City. Nelson was inducted into the Utah State Hall of Fame in 2015.

Nelson earned an undergraduate degree, dual majoring in accounting and finance, and an M.B.A. from Utah State. He and his wife, Julie, have four children - Hannah, Logan, Tommy and Violet.

Nelson is the fourth former player and the first in more than 20 years to appear on a Utah State men's basketball coaching staff, joining Reid Newey (1992-93), Jim Boatwright (1989-91) and fellow USU Hall of Famer Jimmy Moore (1988-93).

COACH DURYEA ON COACH NELSON

"First and foremost, Spencer is an Aggie, and not only that, but an Aggie great. He was a phenomenal player and the best leader as a player that I have been around in my 15 years at Utah State. He has a passion, not only for basketball, but for this institution. He came here, got his degree, got a graduate degree, did an internship on Wall Street and had a 10-year pro career overseas. I don't think there is anyone more qualified to sell what Utah State University can do for a student-athlete than Spencer Nelson."

THIS IS THE MOUNTAIN WEST

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 18th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

The Mountain West has marked several achievements during its first 17 years, most notably becoming the first to establish a sports television network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference (The Mtn.). The Mountain West also was the first to experiment with the coaches' challenge in the college football instant replay system, and was the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference to participate in four BCS bowl games, winning three. In the inaugural year of the new College Football Playoff system, Boise State earned the automatic slot into a New Year's Six bowl game as the highest-ranked champion from the Group of Five 5 conferences. The Broncos defeated then 10th-ranked Arizona 38-30 in the VIZIO Fiesta Bowl. In 2011-12, the Mountain West was among the first conferences to implement a league-wide state-ofthe-art basketball instant replay system.

The Mountain West is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders five MW institutions (Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, New Mexico and Utah State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert cities of Las Vegas and Reno, home to UNLV and Nevada, respectively, while Fresno State, San Diego State and San Jose State add a West coast influence with their locations in Central, Southern and Northern California. The inclusion of the Hawai'i football program extends the Mountain West footprint to the beautiful islands in the Pacific Ocean, while the addition of the women's soccer program at Colorado College gives the MW an additional presence in the Rocky Mountains.

HISTORY OF THE MOUNTAIN WEST

The Mountain West was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The split from a former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Three of the MW's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV and TCU entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MW in 1999. TCU rejoined the group with its first year of competition in the Mountain West in 2005-06. With conference realignment sweeping the nation in recent years, the MW has been proactive in addressing membership changes. Boise State University joined the Mountain West in 2011-12, followed by Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012. Also on July 1, 2012, the University of Hawai'i became a football-only member of the Conference. On July 1, 2013, the Mountain West further expanded when San José State University and Utah State University joined the Conference, bringing to 11 the number of full-time member institutions and 12 football-playing members. On July 1, 2014, the Colorado College women's soccer program became the first non-football affiliate member of the Mountain West, expanding that sport to 12 Conference participants.

When the Mountain West officially began operations on July 1, 1999, the new league had in place a seven-year contract with ESPN, giving the broadcaster exclusive national television rights to MW football and men's basketball, and three-year agreements to send the league's football champion to the Liberty Bowl and a second team to the Las Vegas Bowl. Commissioner Thompson also arranged a third bowl tie-in each of the first three seasons (1999 Motor City, 2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans) before securing a four-year deal with the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco in 2002.

Entering the 2016 season, the MW has six contracted bowl affiliations – the Las Vegas Bowl, San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl, Hawai'i Bowl, Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, Gildan New Mexico Bowl and NOVA® Home Loans Arizona Bowl. The league also has a secondary agreement with the Cactus Bowl.

An innovator in the postseason bowl structure, the MW engineered many "firsts," as league teams have participated in six inaugural bowl games (2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans, 2002 San Francisco (Emerald), 2005 Poinsettia, 2006 New Mexico, 2015 Arizona), as well as placing the first non-automatic-qualifying FBS team into a BCS bowl game with Utah's appearance in the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and into the College Football Playoff (CFP) with Boise State's selection to the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

STAN ALBRECHT

University President

Stan L. Albrecht was named Utah State University's 15th president and assumed his new position on Feb. 1, 2005.

At the time of the announcement, Albrecht was serving as executive vice president and provost at Utah State, a position he held since 2001. He previously served as its dean of the College of Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences from 1998-2001.

Albrecht celebrated ten years of education, innovation and growth at the university during the 2015-16 school year. Since taking the helm, he has seen the university through many changes and successes.

Madelyn Fife, a Utah State honors student and Huntsman Scholar double-majoring in economics and political science, was one of only 54 students nationwide to win a 2016 Harry S. Truman Scholarship. Fife is only the fourth USU student to receive this prestigious scholarship in the last 36 years.

Utah State students succeed because of dedicated faculty and researchers who work hard to carry out USU's mission. The faculty is involved in innovative research projects that often include opportunities for undergraduate students to be involved. A total of more than $220 million of new sponsored awards funding was granted in fiscal year 2014 — the highest level of external support ever recorded. And the excellence continues across our campus. For example, the Emma Eccles Jones College of Education and Human Services was ranked 33rd in the nation overall against all graduate college of education by U.S. News and World Report in the 2016 edition of "America's Best Graduate Schools."

Utah State's Year of Water was in 2015, a year in which the university highlighted its water expertise and leadership across disciplines. USU's water specialists today, in fact, are among the nation's and the world's leading experts on many water-related issues, particularly in the areas of management, ecosystems, climate, water education and society's understanding of this precious resource.

There are also many physical changes on the campus as well. The Huntsman Hall, the state-of-the-art addition that wraps around the George S. Eccles Business Building, was opened in the spring of 2016. Students were also excited that the USU Student Recreation & Wellness Center building opened in the fall of 2015. Those attending Aggie football games will be able to observe first-hand the major renovation the newly named Maverik Stadium. Across the state new classroom buildings were opened at our campuses in Price, Tooele and Brigham City

Prior to his arrival at Utah State, Albrecht served as an administrator and

UTAH STATE DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

JOHN HARTWELL

University Vice President/ Director of Athletics

Since being named Vice President and Director of Athletics at Utah State on June 2, 2015, John Hartwell has cast his vision for Aggie Athletics, which embodies maximum effort socially, academically and athletically to ensure success in both the classroom and on the fields of competition.

Hartwell has also focused on maximizing and increasing the department's revenue streams, along with planning for future facility renovations to both Maverik Stadium and the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum.

In his brief time at Utah State, Hartwell has already rebranded the fundraising arm of Utah State Athletics with the creation of Aggies Unlimited, which puts all aivina under one umbrella.

Additionally, Hartwell has overseen the completion of the $36 million, 85,000 square feet West Stadium Center on the west side of Maverik Stadium, which includes 24 luxury suites, 20 loge boxes, over 700 covered club seats and a premium club area that will also be used to host a student-athlete training table. Renovations also included new video boards on both the north and south ends of the stadium, along with a new public address system, while major concourse work significantly increased restrooms and upgraded concessions.

Under Hartwell's leadership, Utah State saw unparalleled athletic success during the 2015-16 academic year as its men's tennis program won the school's first-ever Mountain West Championship, the men's indoor and men's outdoor track & field programs both finished second at its conference championships, and its football program played in its school-record fifth-straight bowl game.

Furthermore, Utah State's softball program concluded its best season in 20 years, posting a 26-25 overall record while going 12-12 in Mountain West action. as its 26 wins and 20 league wins are its most since 1996. The Aggies finished the 2016 campaign in a three-way tie for third place in the league standings, their highest conference finish since the 1993 squad claimed a share of the Big West title

Even more impressive was Utah State's continued successes by its student-athletes in the classroom as they have an 87 percent graduation success rate and a cumulative 3.15 grade-point average. During the 2015-16 academic year, USU had 171 student-athletes earn academic all-Mountain West honors, while 102 were named Mountain West Scholar Athletics, Additionally, USU recognized 202 student-athletes at its annual Joe E. and Elma Whitesides Luncheon for earning

Hartwell came to Utah State after spending the three years as the Athletics Director at Troy, where he laid the groundwork for the future of Trojan Athletics by spearheading several significant upgrades to its athletic facilities, including the addition of a new $2 million practice facility for the golf teams, a $3 million renovation and expansion of the softball facility and a $2.1 million improvement to Veterans Memorial Stadium, while also securing funding for lights to be installed at the soccer and track complex. Hartwell also unveiled the North End Zone Project for Veterans Memorial Stadium, a $20 million project that will be the new home for Trojan football.

During the 2014-15 academic year, five Troy programs competed in postseason play, highlighted by a pair of Sun Belt Conference championships by the women's aolf and men's tennis teams, while the women's basketball team won 20 games for the first time since 1996-97 and made just its second postseason

Under Hartwell, Troy Athletics saw a significant enhancement in fundraising and external relations as he completely overhauled Troy's External Affairs division of the Athletics Department to increase revenues and enhance the fan and game day experience. As part of this makeover was the creation of a new external model, which included the addition of a Senior Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs; bringing corporate sponsorships in house with a partnership with Rockbridge Sports Group; and the development of the Troy Affinity Program to further engage Troy students in athletics.

Hartwell's strong business background also proved to be valuable at Troy as he negotiated a new footwear and apparel deal with Adidas, while also securing home-and-home football games with Duke and North Carolina State in addition to yielding a home basketball game with Mississippi. Hartwell's tenure at Troy also saw a record number of student-athletes earn a 3.0 grade-point-average, an upward trend in APR scores and additional staff positions in Troy's academic support department. During the 2014-15 academic year, Troy student-athletes finished with a 3.01 cumulative grade-point-average and over 57 percent of Troy's student-athletes had a 3.0 GPA or higher.

He has also been an instructor at the Division I-A Institute for aspiring athletic directors the past two

Prior to being the Director of Athletics at Troy, Hartwell spent nine-plus years at the University of Mississippi, where he was the Senior Executive Associate Athletics Director, serving as the number two administrator in athletics.

Hartwell served as the Treasurer and Chief Operating Officer of the Mississippi Athletic Association Foundation, a 501 (c)(3) organization that generated over $17 million annually for the Ole Miss Athletics Department through priority seating and major aifts.

He was responsible for the day-to-day administrative oversight of the football, men's basketball and baseball programs, along with sport oversight of the softball and men's and women's track & field and cross country programs. Hartwell also oversaw the Rebels' business office, ticket office, equipment room, merchandise sales, concessions and football scheduling. Hartwell scheduled several marquee football games for the Rebels, including a home-and-home series with Texas that began in 2012.

Hartwell managed the growth of the Ole Miss athletic budget from $26 million in the 2003 fiscal year to over $47 million in the 2012 fiscal year. He also chaired the search to hire men's basketball head coach Andy Kennedy in 2006. He was heavily involved in negotiations that increased revenues with contracts for apparel and footwear (Nike), merchandise sales (Sports Avenue/LIDS), concessions (Centerplate), wireless provider (C Spire) and video boards (Daktronics). He served on the Southeastern Conference Ticket Committee and started the annual SEC Chief Financial Officers Forum.
